VIKINGS—a name for the proud, strong, and courageous . . . Twenty-two years ago, students of Central Catholic High School adopted this name, because it portrayed the innate characteristics of the Vikings: knowledge, zeal, and love of a challenge.

Even as the ships of our predecessors were guided by the black raven on their flag of gold, our school life is guided by the Holy Spirit, Dove of Wisdom, emblazoned on our school seal.

An ardor for adventure marks the Vikings of both yesterday and today. Only the goal is different. Yesterday's Vikings sought the New World; today's Vikings seek the Promised World, Heaven.

From all sections of the northland these bold men came to meet the demands of the open sea. These early explorers had no other incentive but love of a challenge.

We, as students of Central Catholic, come from many different communities to accept the opportunities of religion, knowledge, and recreation to prepare us to meet the demands of the working world. Our incentive is love of God.

Thus proving that we not only bear, but deserve, the name of Vikings. The Viking Spirit lives on in the students of Central Catholic.

"My Peace I Leave With You; My Peace I Give Unto You."

THE LATE POPE PIUS XII.
May his dear soul rest in peace.

POPES DIE . . .

The Pope Lives On

"Accipio"

One word—yet, upon uttering it Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli accepted upon his frail shoulders the weight of a warring world.

Calming the troubled sea was not easy and many times Pius cried out in vain. Nothing is lost with peace, and yet, almost five years passed before the war ended.

Peace opened the Vatican's doors to everyone, for Pope Pius, allowing his children to come unto him, received in audiences more people than any of his predecessors.

Death reclosed Peter's doors, for the "People's Pope" has returned to his God. The boat is empty. The Navigator is dead.

"Accipio"

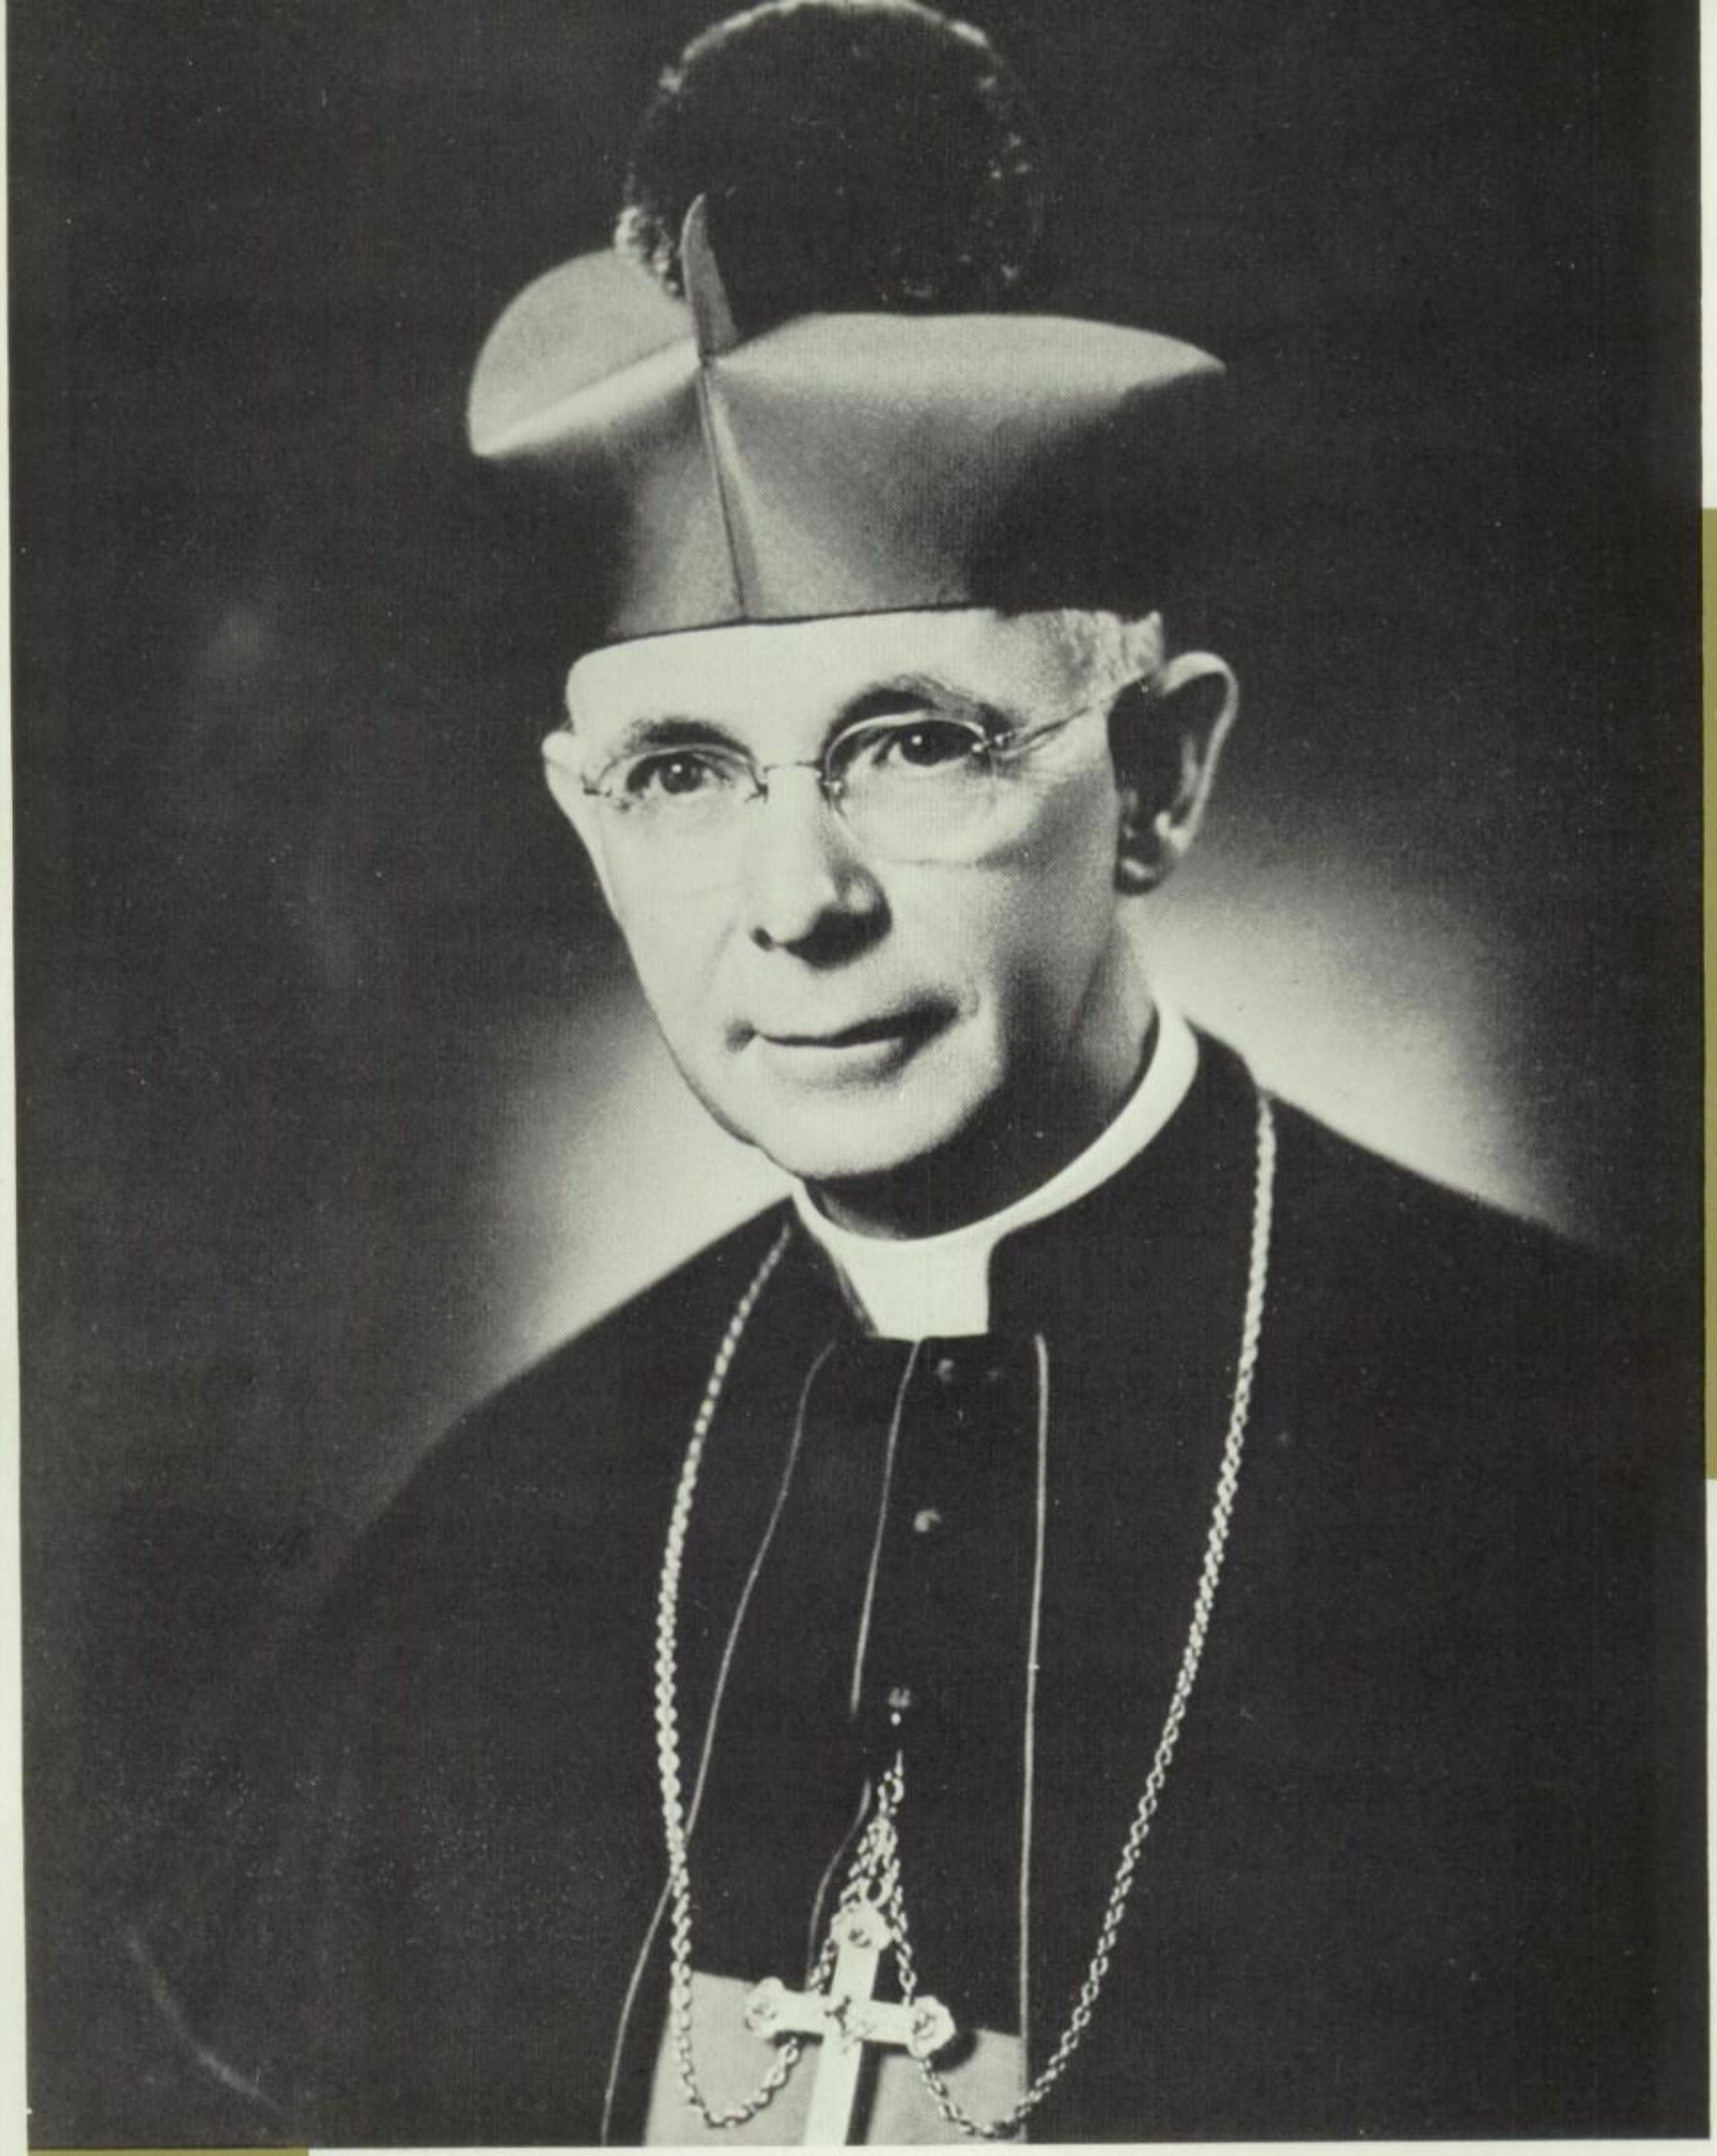
One word, and on uttering it Angelo Cardinal Roncalli accepted the Vicarship of Christ under the name of John XXIII.

An avid sports fan, Pius XII greets a basketball captain during one audience. His intense love of people won him a multitude of friends from all over the world. Photo (U-10B-Nab-C) Religious News Service

Emissary of peace — our former Holy Father spread his spirit among thousands who sought his audience. Here, a Catholic Action group learns the true meaning of "Catholic Action."

"Another Christ" adores, sacrifices, and prays for his people at the altar of God. He fills his soul with God's love; we receive its overflow.

"I announce to you tidings of great joy. We have a Pope!" The bark of the Church has another Vicar, Pope John XXIII, to guide her through stormy waters to eternal shores.



His Excellency
JOHN CARDINAL O'HARA, C.S.C., D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

OUR DIOCESAN ADMINISTRATION . . .

Sets Our Goals

The Right Reverend Monsignor
EDWARD M. REILLY, J.C.D.
Superintendent of Schools of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia

Bone Pastor . . . Good Shepherd that he is, our prince of the Church, John Cardinal O'Hara received the "Red Hat" in one of Pope John XXIII's first official acts. As cardinal he will continue to tend his flock in the archdiocese of Philadelphia as he has been doing for the past eight years. His special interests and abilities as an educator prove most beneficial to our school system. Through the Cardinal's untiring efforts our diocesan schools have both greatly increased in number and improved in quality. Besides supplying ordinary educational facilities, he also watches over his "little sheep," the handicapped with tender care by providing more schools than ever for them. May God bless his reign.

The Right Reverend Monsignor Edward M. Reilly, superintendent of schools, together with Reverend John J. Graham and Reverend Frederick J. Stevenson comprise a most efficient team to assist the Cardinal in the operation of our schools. We thank them for their zeal and concerted efforts to make our Catholic system of education the best.

The Reverend
JOHN J. GRAHAM, D.D.
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

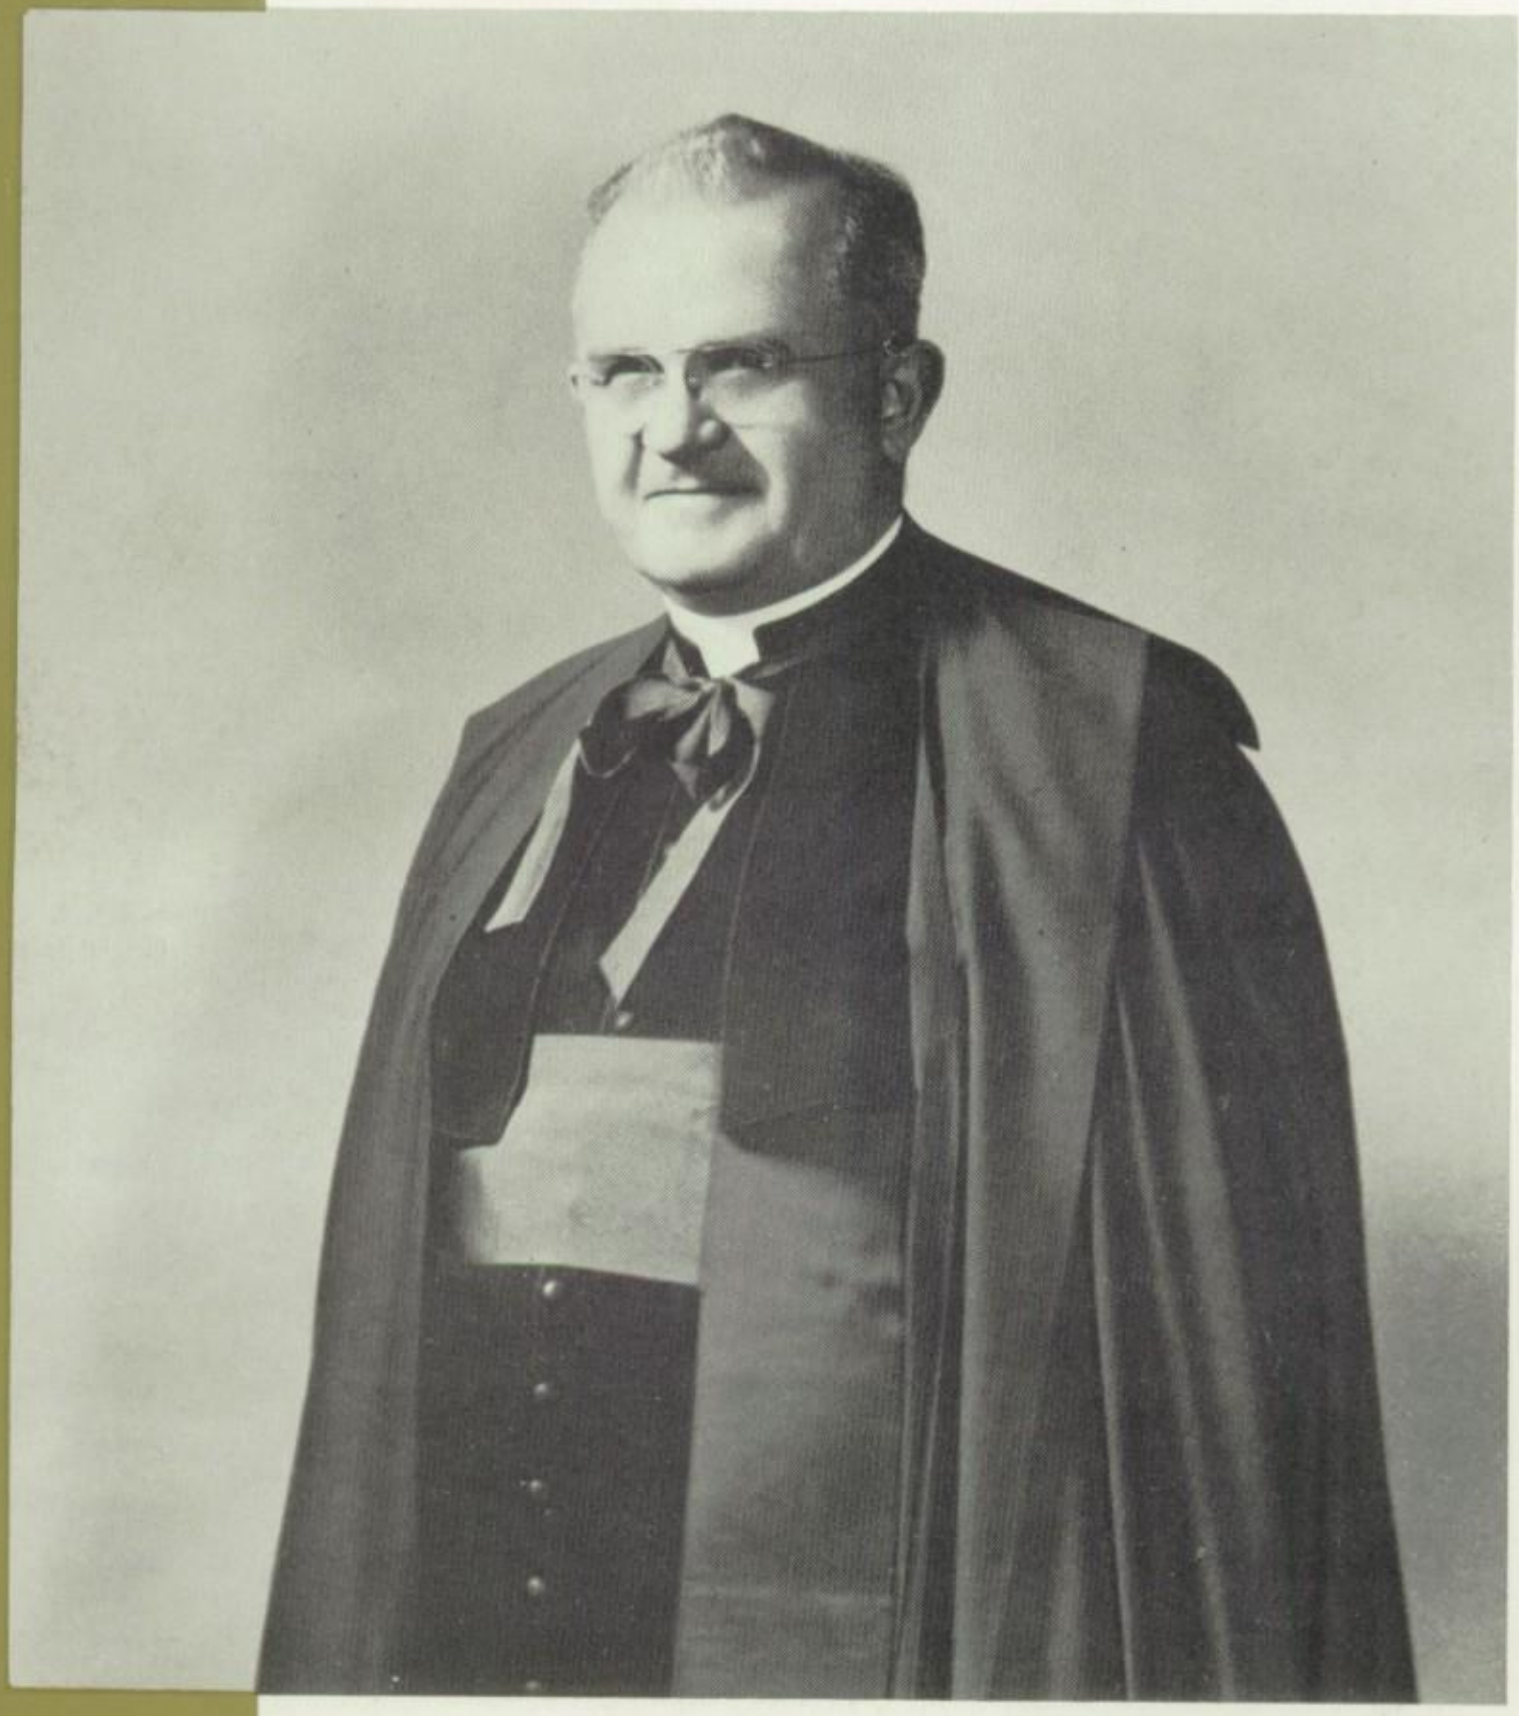
The Reverend
FREDERICK J. STEVENSON
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Our Guide Pilots Our Course

"If you do it to the least of My brethren . . ." These words must surely have gone to Monsignor Fink's heart many years ago when he first began his self-sacrificing labors in the Lehigh Valley. For the past thirty-three years he has spent himself indefatigably instructing the faithful in his preaching and in his schools, sheltering the homeless in his orphanage, caring for the sick in his hospital, and providing security for the aged in his Santa Clara Home.

We feel especially indebted to him for our wonderful Alma Mater, Central Catholic High School, and its extraordinary facilities that make it the best in the Lehigh Valley.

We ask God's very special blessing on him and all he has done.

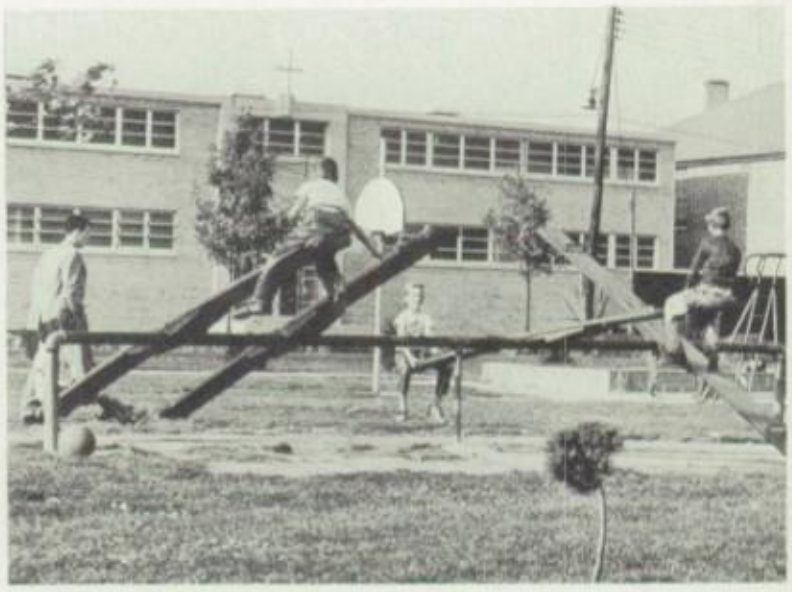


The Right Reverend Monsignor
LEO GREGORY FINK, V.F., P.A., LL.D.
Director of Central Catholic High School

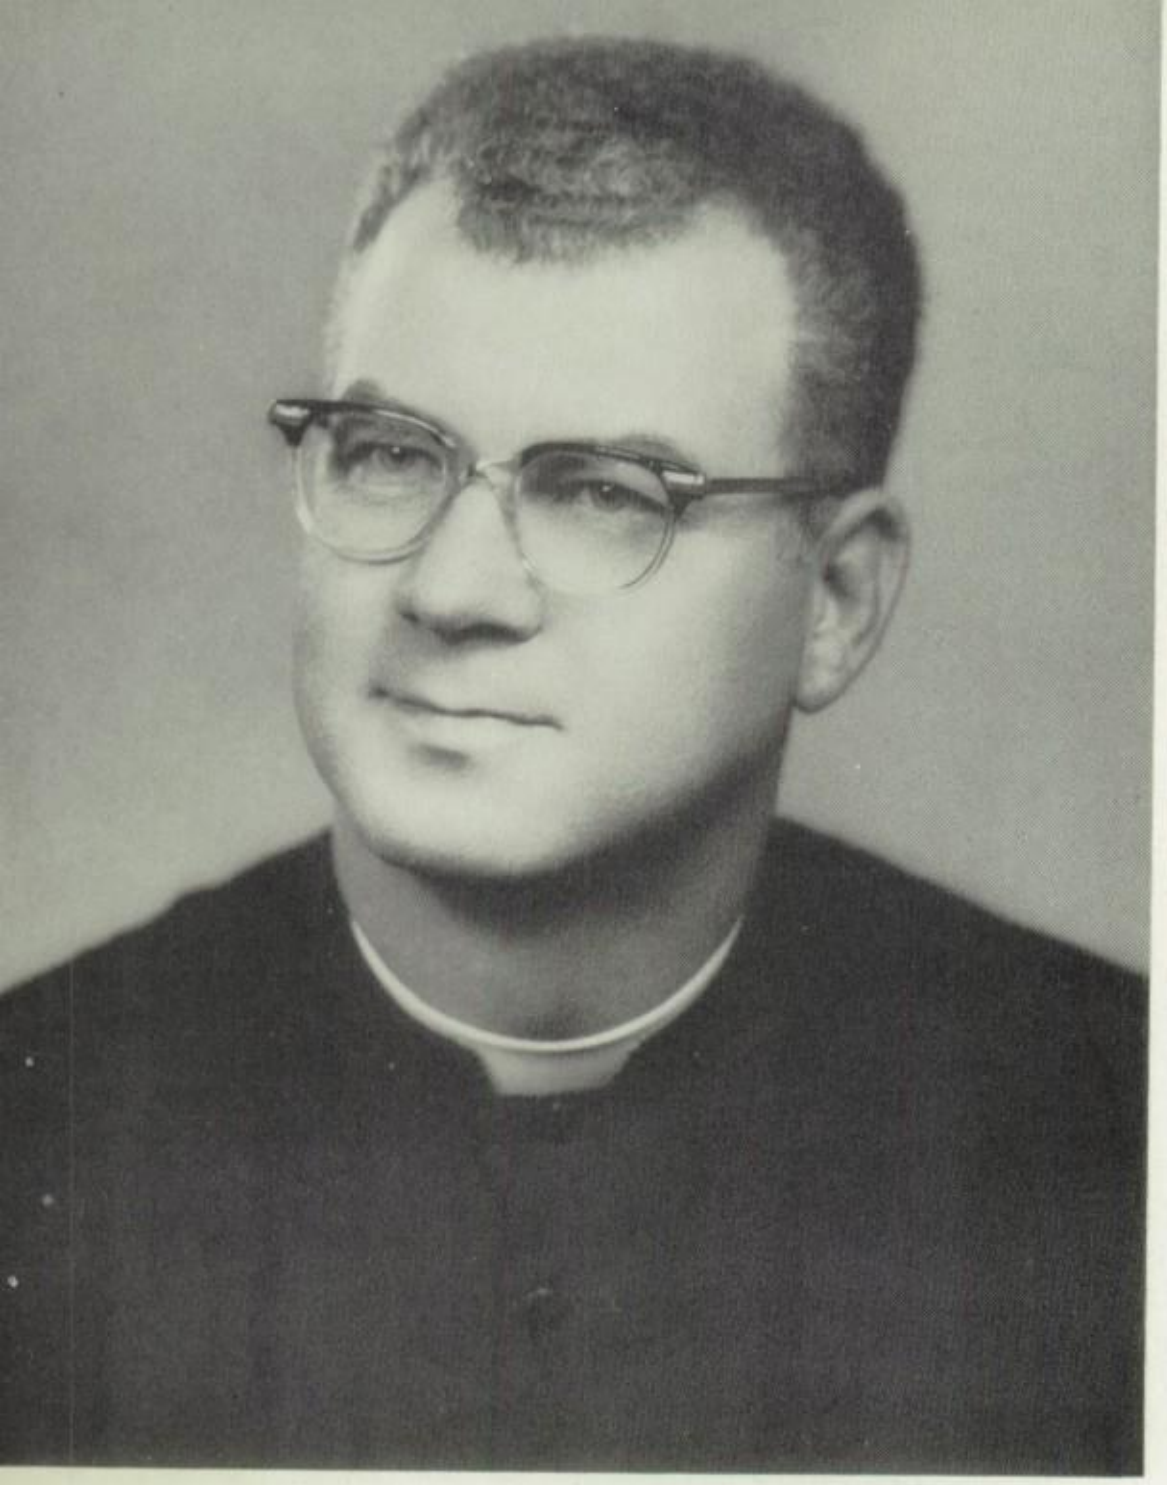
Where will we put those Freshmen? Faced with the problem of overcrowded classrooms, Monsignor Fink purchased the Jewish Community Center, now known as Carroll Hall, to supplement Central Catholic's main building.

Guess what I learned today! Enthusiasm plus sparkles in these young students as they leave Sacred Heart Grade School. Learning is so much nicer in pleasant surroundings, and Monsignor Fink has done everything possible to make the classroms of this modern building very pleasing to the young student.

"Enter to learn; go forth to serve." With these words of inspiration the students of the Sacred Heart Hospital School of Nursing, under Monsignor Fink's direction, learn to help the sick and afflicted of the community.



Healthy and happy . . . That is the way you will find these youngsters at Sacred Heart Orphanage, Coopersburg. As founder and director, Monsignor Fink keeps them spiritually, mentally, and physically fit. This new gym plays an important part in his program.



"Grant that by the same Spirit we may be truly wise." The Rev. Stephen J. Daday endeavors to impress this on us, his students. Since 1953, when Father Daday was appointed Prinpal of Central Catholic High School, he has proved a competent mentor of our academic life. Moreover, our all-important spiritual life is guided by Father. Our annual retreat, and weekly Mass are spiritual functions arranged for by him. Father, by constantly offering us the means to come closer to God, encourages us to become "truly wise."

The Reverend

OUR NAVIGATORS

And now, our Thought for the Weekend . . . Every Friday afternoon, Father Daday closes the week with a special address to the Student Body. Father discusses every possible topic from His Holiness, Pope John XXIII, to modest dress habits. His addresses, though brief, are unforgettable, impressing us with their pointed phrases. Father received a Freedom Foundation Award in public recognition of his wise helps to CCHS teenagers.

Make a carbon of that . . . Father Strassner, our Assistant Principal, checks Freshman records with Gloria Haas, assistant school secretary. This is only one of the many duties handled so ably by Father Strassner, as he keeps Carroll Hall running smoothly.

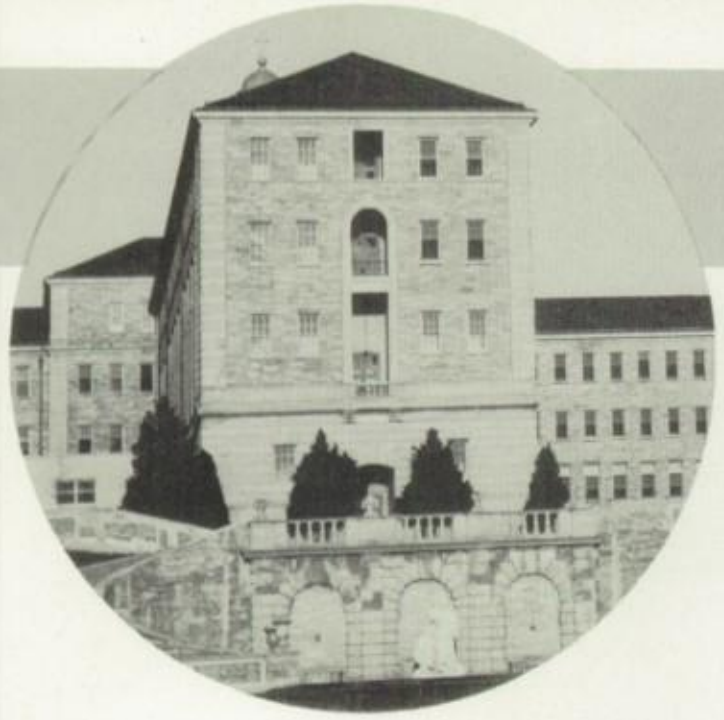
Even in the modern world, some areas have been left unexplored. The gateways to these realms are opened only by knowledge.

Daily, driven by the Viking Spirit, we discover stepping-stones to these gateways through the pursuit of our various subjects. With the guidance of our faculty members, we seek the basic essentials of Religion, mathematics, languages, and science.

When, as graduates, we have reached the last foothold of our high school days, we will be ready to approach these portals with eagerness and great determination.

Discoveries

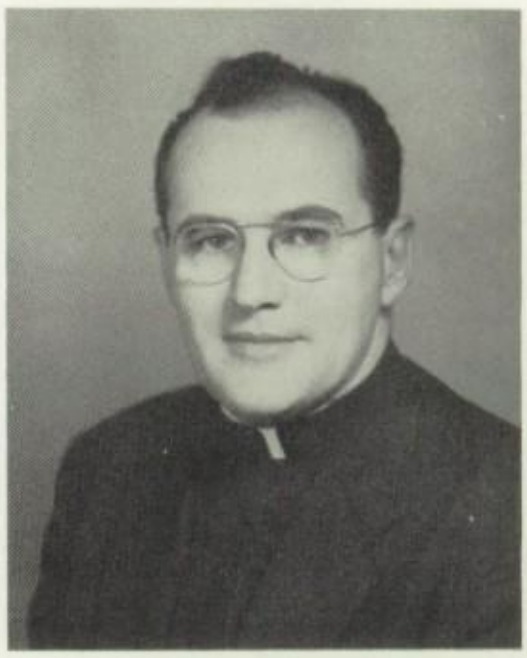


From St. Charles Seminary

the secular priests of our Religion Department share their rich heritage with us.

How shall we repay them? Apart from their many duties as parish priests, the secular priests of our faculty instruct us in the study of our Religion, as well as German and Latin. Outside the classroom their duties range from directing our athletic program to staging and decorating for our Variety Show and Musicale. For these and the many services which our priests perform, we offer our gratitude.

Sure God exists! But Leo McIntyre, who is trying to prove that God's nature is His existence, needs the help of St. Thomas Aquinas to help him to prove it. This phase of Senior Religion is most valuable, as understanding helps to strengthen Faith.



Reverend James M. Butler . . . Religion II, IV . . . Assistant Director of Athletics . . . Assist with Variety Show . . . Staging and Decorating Committee for the Musicale.

Next stop heaven—Destination seems to be the main topic of discussion in Father Zavodny's Religion III class. Sandra Gorek, however, tells her classmates that the road of Christian morality leads to an eternity of glorifying God. We have but one chance, and This Is It.

Wo ist Brodenburg? Bud Wons points out this important city in a discussion about geographical relations between East and West Germany while Father Conard, Nancy Hoffner, and Louis Korpics look on with approval.

Reverend H. Edward Conard . . . Religion IV . . . German I, II.

Reverend John J. McNamara . . . Religion III . . . Senior Class Play . . . Assist with Variety Show . . . Staging and Decorating Committee for the Musicale.

Reverend Francis J. Zavodny . . . Religion III, IV . . . Director of Athletics . . . Staging and Decorating Committee for the Musicale.

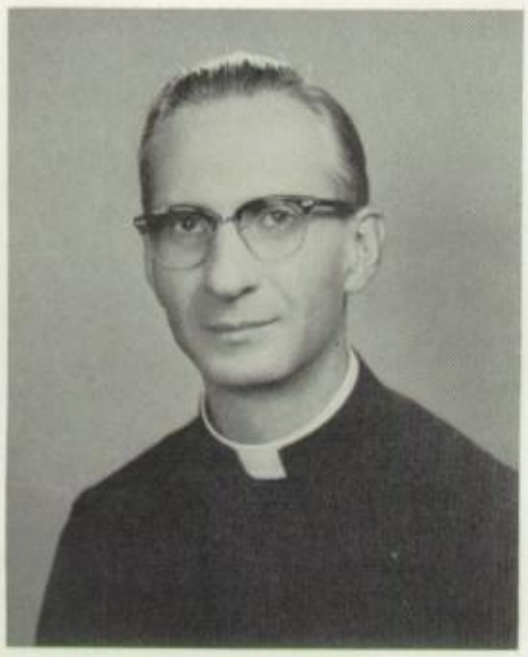
That's the idea! Father Morrison proudly smiles as Eleanor Sloyer and Carol Savarese give the correct answer concerning parallel construction. The students of Latin III are getting careful preparation in thought training that may spell the difference between success and failure in any walk of life.

Reverend David J. Morrison . . . Religion II . . . Latin I, III . . . Activity Moderator . . . Spiritual Director . . . Altar Boys . . . Junior Prom.

From St. Bernard's

home of the Marianhill Fathers, Father Albero and Father Lawrence guide us along the Marian way in the quest of our eternal destiny.

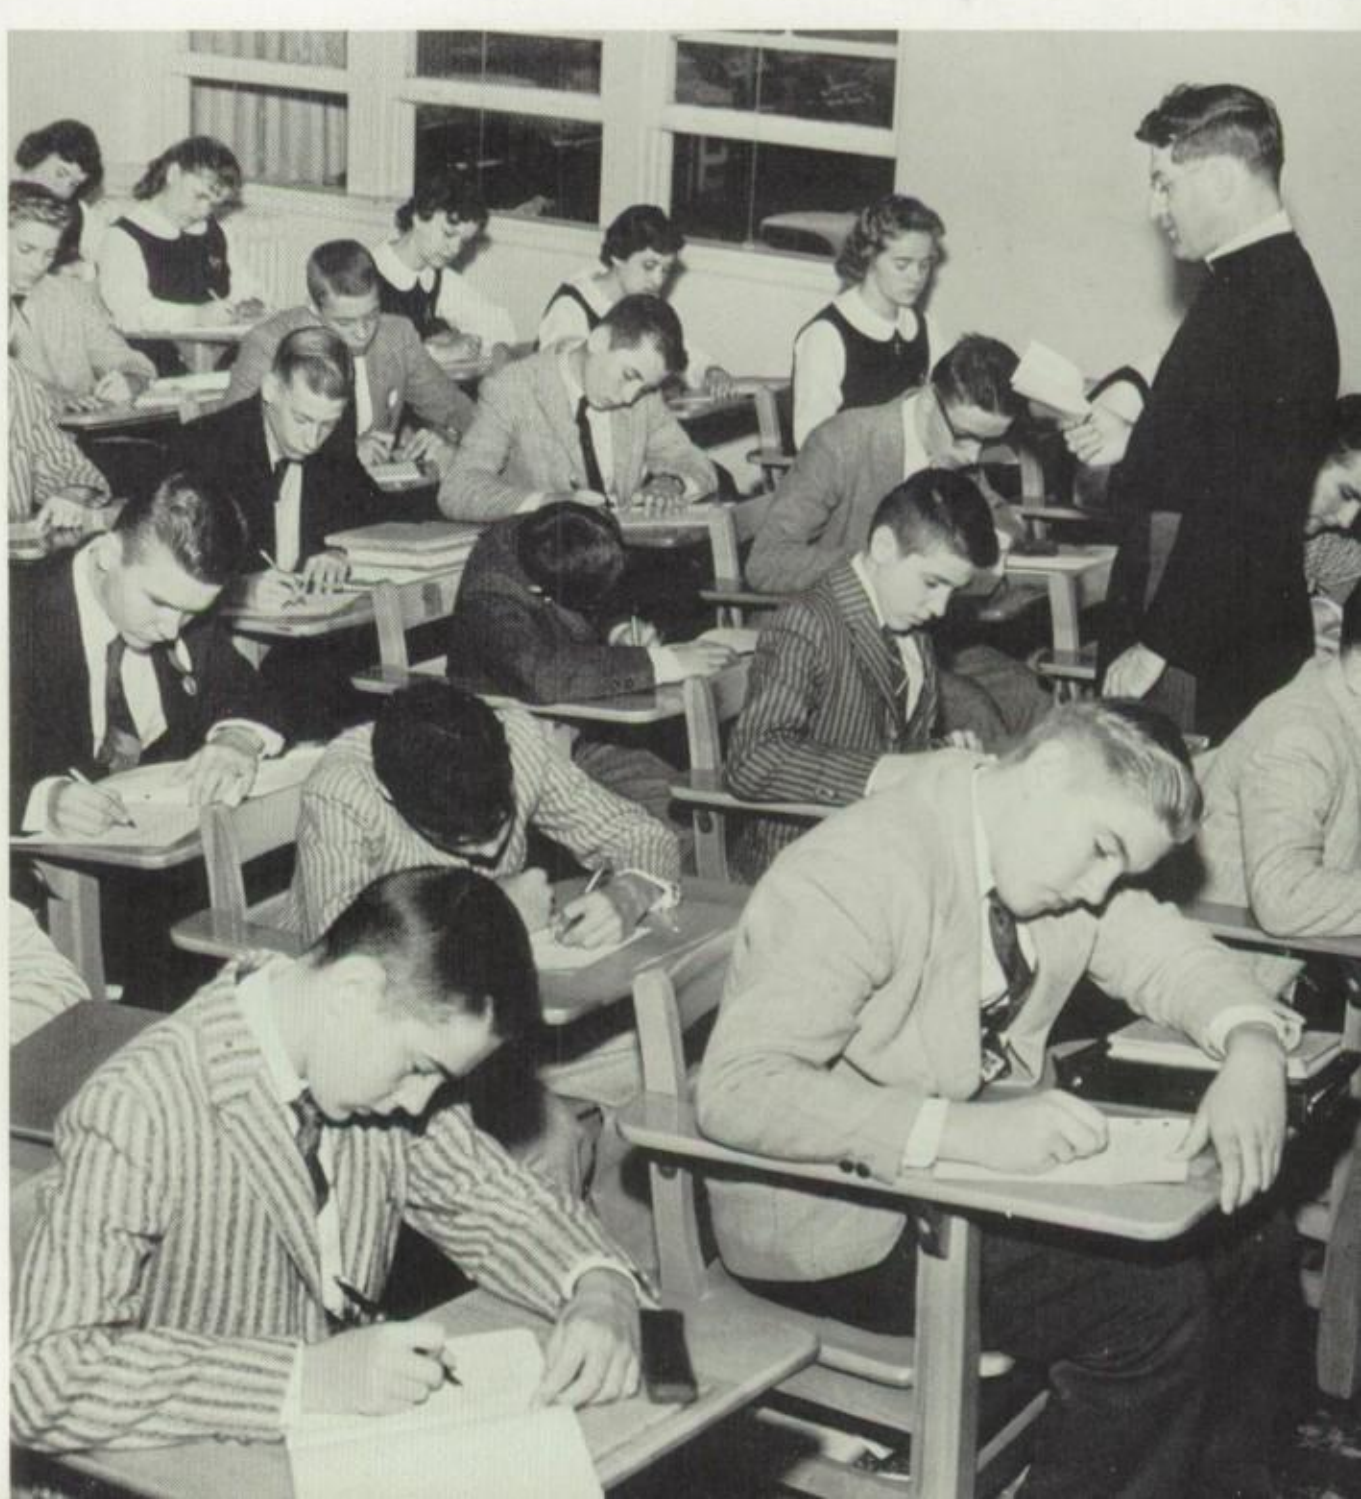
To bring souls closer to God is the goal of every Marianhill priest. The souls of teenagers sometime seem the hardest of all to bring closer to God, but the two priests of this order who are at Central Catholic have been doing a marvelous job. Guiding the souls of the Freshmen and Sophomores are Father Lawrence and Father Albero. Father Lawrence teaches the Freshmen the fundamentals of Religion I, while Father Albero explains the history of the Church to Sophomores. Together they make a combination even our teen-age souls cannot resist.



REVEREND ALBERO AMRHEIN, C.M.M. . . . Religion I, II . . . Stage Properties.

REVEREND LAWENCE HEISER, C.M.M. . . . Religion I . . . Altar Boys . . . Harvest Dance.

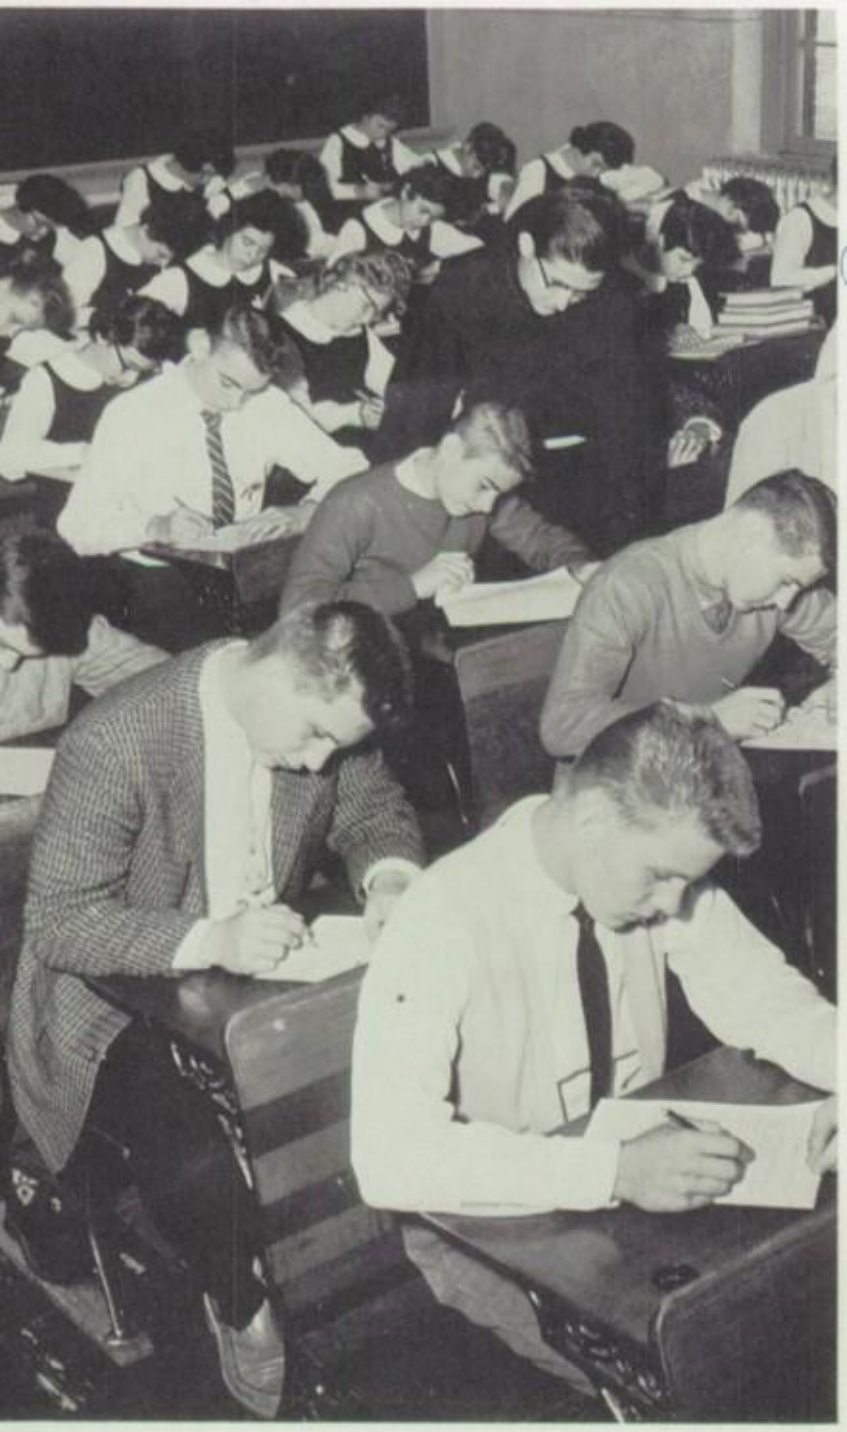
"Blessed are they who study their notes," is no doubt one of Father Lawrence's favorite sayings to his Religion I class. The notes at this period deal mostly with the Sermon on the Mount, where Our Lord preached the eight Beatitudes which help us along the path of perfection leading to Heaven.



From St. Francis Friary

Father John Joseph carries Franciscan tradition into all his Sophomore Religion classes.

"Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace . . ." is the prayer of each Franciscan as he starts his day. As a follower of St. Francis of Assisi, Father John Joseph shows to his Sophomores through the study of Church History how to find in Christ's Church the peace and security they need to live well so that ". . . in dying they may be born to eternal life."

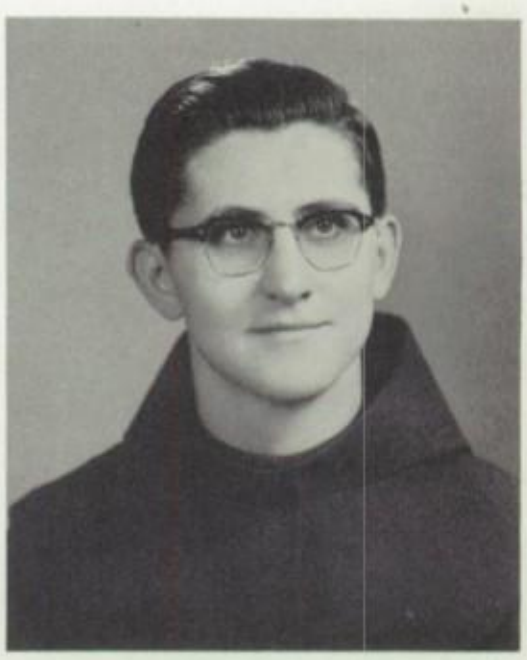


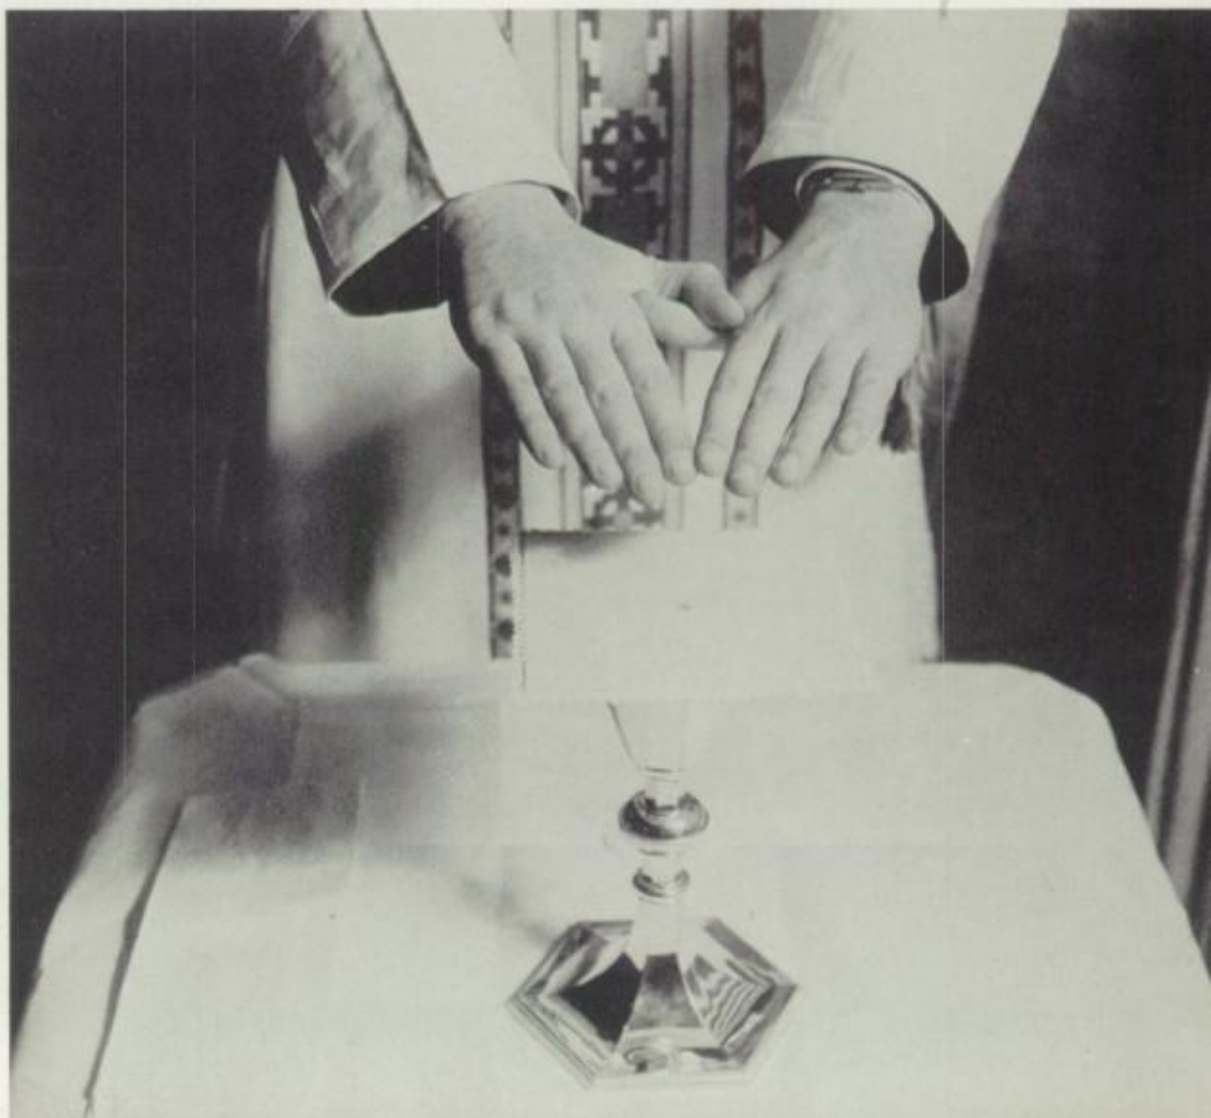
We believe! With the help of God's grace and under Father John Joseph's guidance we learn the beauty and value of the gift of Faith. Father's Sophomore class takes inventory of their knowledge in a test in doctrine.

REVEREND JOHN JOSEPH GONCHER, O.S.F. . . . Religion II.

Fr. John Joseph ofm.
May the Lord give you
His peace! Keep up
your good work!

"That you may have life and have it more fully." Without the Bread of Life our studies avail us nothing. Our Religion classes give us knowledge; the Holy Eucharist gives us divine Grace to love what we believe.





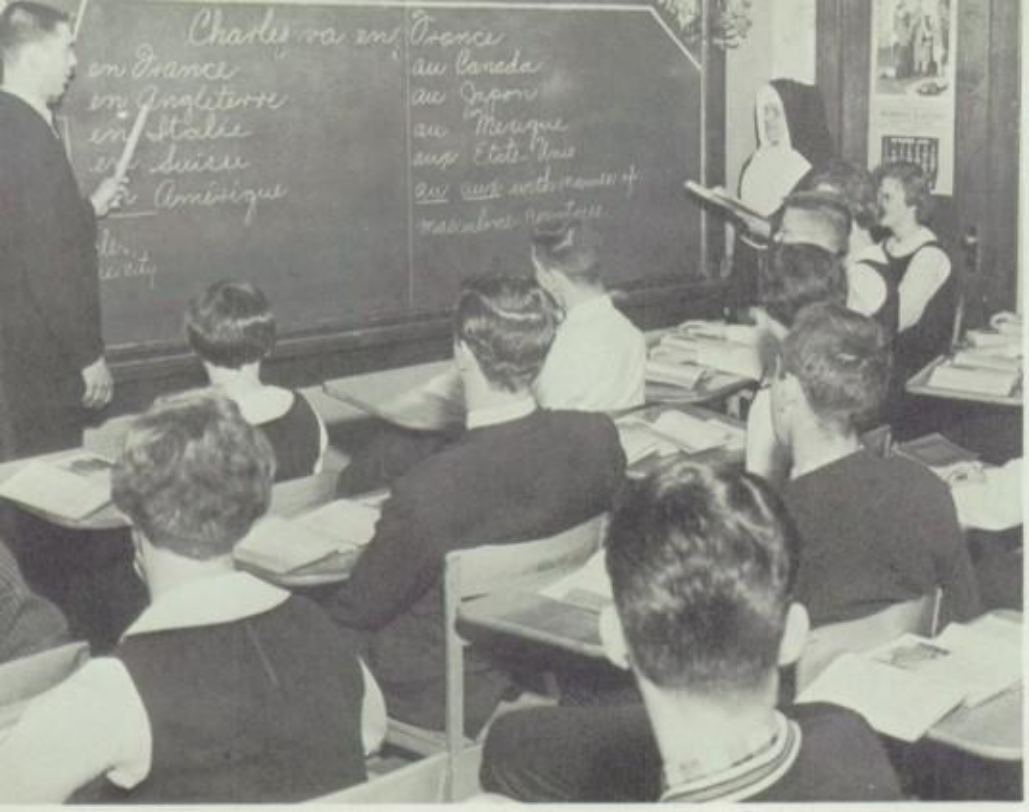
From Our Lady Of The Angels

in Glen Riddle, every Sister of St. Francis passes on the sweet spirit of St. Francis.

"Lunch at fourth period?" David Valente is making a careful study of his roster for the coming school year. Ready to give David any needed explanation is Sister Eufrida, who assists in the roster office.

Wanted: Tube Tester. F. Whitney, R. Sweeney, J. Simitz, A. Menichelli, and R. Lee are learning this basic lesson in "trouble shooting." This training will prepare them for a future job as a radio technician.

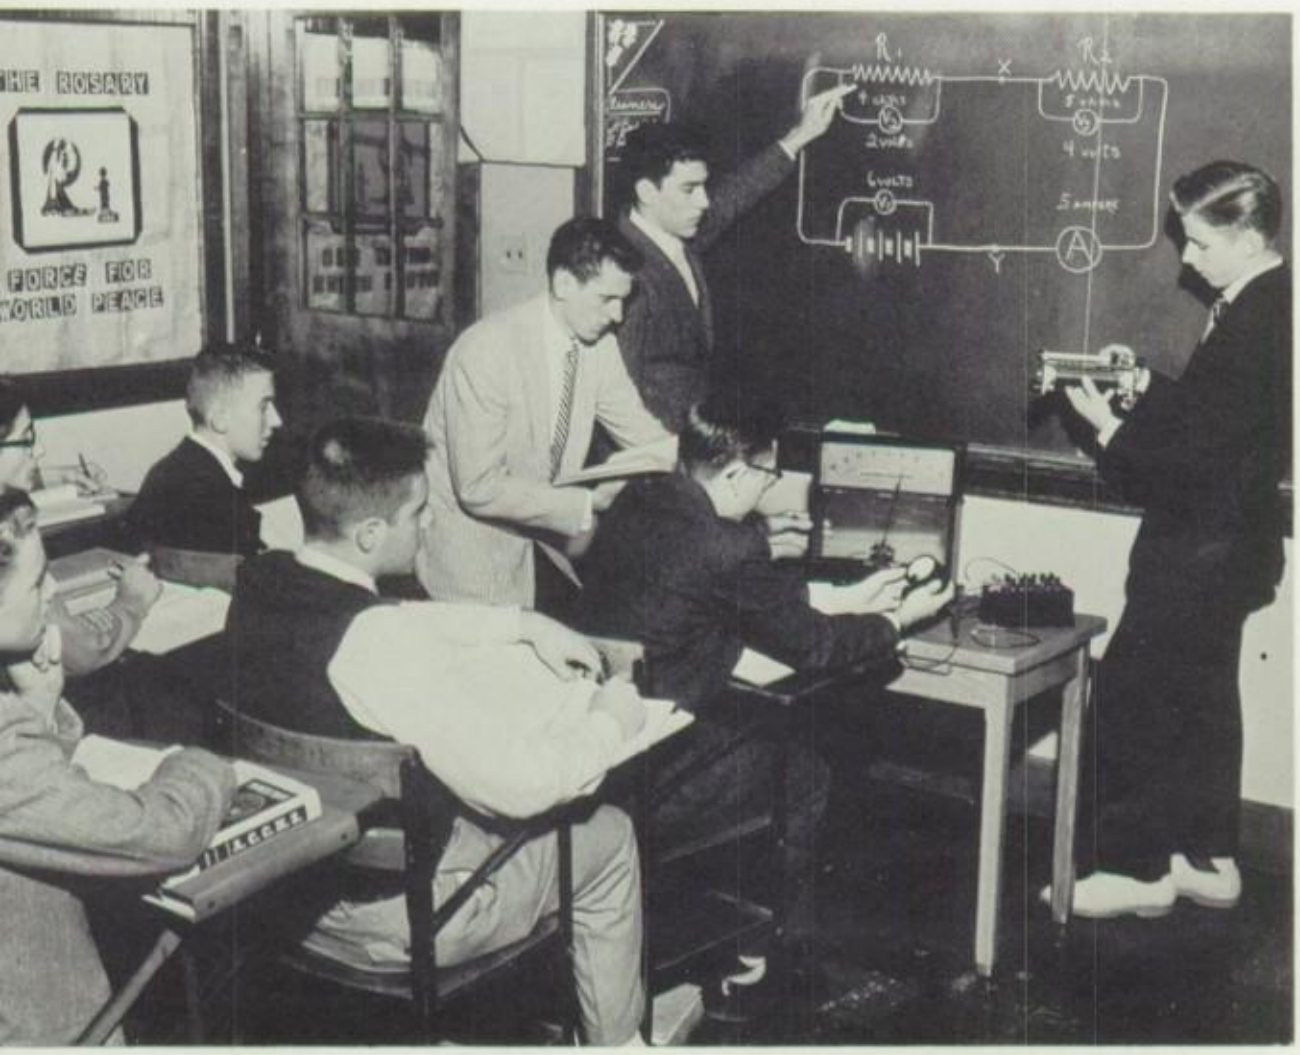
Sister Mary Eufrida, O.S.F. . . . Radio . . . Hygiene . . . Guidance . . . Electricity . . . Prefect of Sisters . . . Prefect of Discipline . . . Head of Science Department . . . Assistant Prefect of Studies.



Taking a "trip" around the world, Robert Fritsch leads his French II class in a "tour" of the many countries of the Old and New Worlds. To acquaint the students with the correct preposition to use with each country, and to help the students to acquire the fluent use of idioms is the aim of the lesson.

Science, business, and guidance are three important fundamentals in any high school. We at Central Catholic are fortunate for our Viking spirit is given an incentive in these three fields by the Franciscan Sisters. The Franciscans not only have the experience necessary for teaching, but they have a special talent which enables them to transfer their knowledge to us.

Electricity, Incorporated. These boys are learning the foundation of electricity by the use of meters, resistances, and source of current in a circuit. James Mariani, Joseph Korpics, Joseph Mannion, and John Brezina are demonstrating their abilities to the class.



"An ounce of prevention . . . " These hygiene students are discussing the lesson on congenital heart diseases. These explanations will acquaint the students with the symptoms, causes, and treatments of heart diseases.

Accomplished! Regina Spevak has just completed a journal entry and has met with the approval of Sister Anthony Mary. Errors are detected, corrected, and discussed by these future bookkeepers. Neatness and efficiency are the key words in this course.

It doesn't fit! To cope with this problem, Sister Patricia Anne teaches J. Cerulli, J. Buck, J. Braun, and J. Balliet how to "squeeze" a letter into a small space, and in a limited amount of time.

BUSINESS . . .

To enable a student to take his place in the world, Central Catholic extends the opportunity to learn business methods and machines through a commercial course. Bookkeepers, secretaries, stenographers, or a combination of all three are the finished products. Each student is well trained in his job, and has no difficulty in meeting the requirements of today's business world.

SISTER M. PATRICIA ANNE, O.S.F. . . . Stenography II . . . Secretarial Training . . . Typing I . . . Student Government Moderator.

SCIENCE Challenges Young Minds

Watch those test tubes! Students of Sister Ventura's Chemistry class are given an understanding of how oxygen supports combustion and life. This experiment, along with many other lessons throughout the year, enables the students to build a foundation for future success in chemical analysis and research, a field that offers immeasurable opportunities.

So that's why we have summer! Lucille Hendricks is explaining why the seasons change and the influence the sun has in altering them. Helping her is Walter Smolt, who holds the globe, and Thomas Roth who flashes the light to depict the earth as it rotates around the sun.

The senior science club and the Lehigh Valley Science Fair go hand in hand. Under the able supervison of Sister Christopher, the science club members work on their intricate projects, which they will enter into competition in the forthcoming science fair. To help them acquire new ideas for these projects, the club also takes annual trips to places of scientific interest. The science club challenges the young scientists of Central, and encourages them to further their studies.

Through the courtesy of the State Police, Senior Science Club members are learning the latest techniques in detecting radiation for Civil Defense. This training will make them valuable members of the community in the event of national emergency. Sgt. Bensinger demonstrates the functions and proper use of a geiger counter.

Even the air is radioactive. This principle can be demonstrated by a cloud chamber. Jean Friedman, with the assistance of Nancy Hoffner, explains the construction of a chamber, as Lorraine Matuczinski, Carol Kurnig, and Rita Wukitsch take notes.

Mechanical Advantage $= \frac{r}{e} = \frac{l}{h}$ How does the angle of the plane affect the effort required? Sister Marie Kathleen supervises a student demonstration of the mechanical advantage of the inclined plane, one of the six simple machines.

The Junior Science Club, moderated by Sister Marie Kathleen, is busily preparing for the Science Fair. They are brought closer to science through the use of films touching different subjects each week. They also journey to different points of scientific interest in our part of the country. The aim of our club is a better understanding of science.

Junior Science Club members better understand "seeing" sound waves as Alex Brincko operates an oscilloscope. Waiting for a visual pattern to appear on the flourescent screen are C. Taus, S. Noval, J. Tate, G. Deutsch, F. Clewell, and R. Dashner.

Interested Biologists, B. Urban, M. Vesz, and R. Wolf are the sophomore students examining Thallophytes under the microscope with the instructions of Sister Kenneth. By studying the construction of these microscopic plants, the students realize a greater appreciation of the handiwork of God in the perfection of such minute organisms.

Sister M. Joseph Rita, I.H.M. . . . English III, IV . . . Literary Magazine.

Important indeed . . . Explaining the necessity of correct form in letter addressing is Bernice Solga, a pupil in Mother Francisca's senior English class. Since a correct, complete, courteous letter can be the gateway to success, this information will be very useful to our graduates when applying for work or admission to college.

SISTER M. ST. IGNAUTIUS, I.H.M. . . . English III . . . Journalism . . . School Paper.

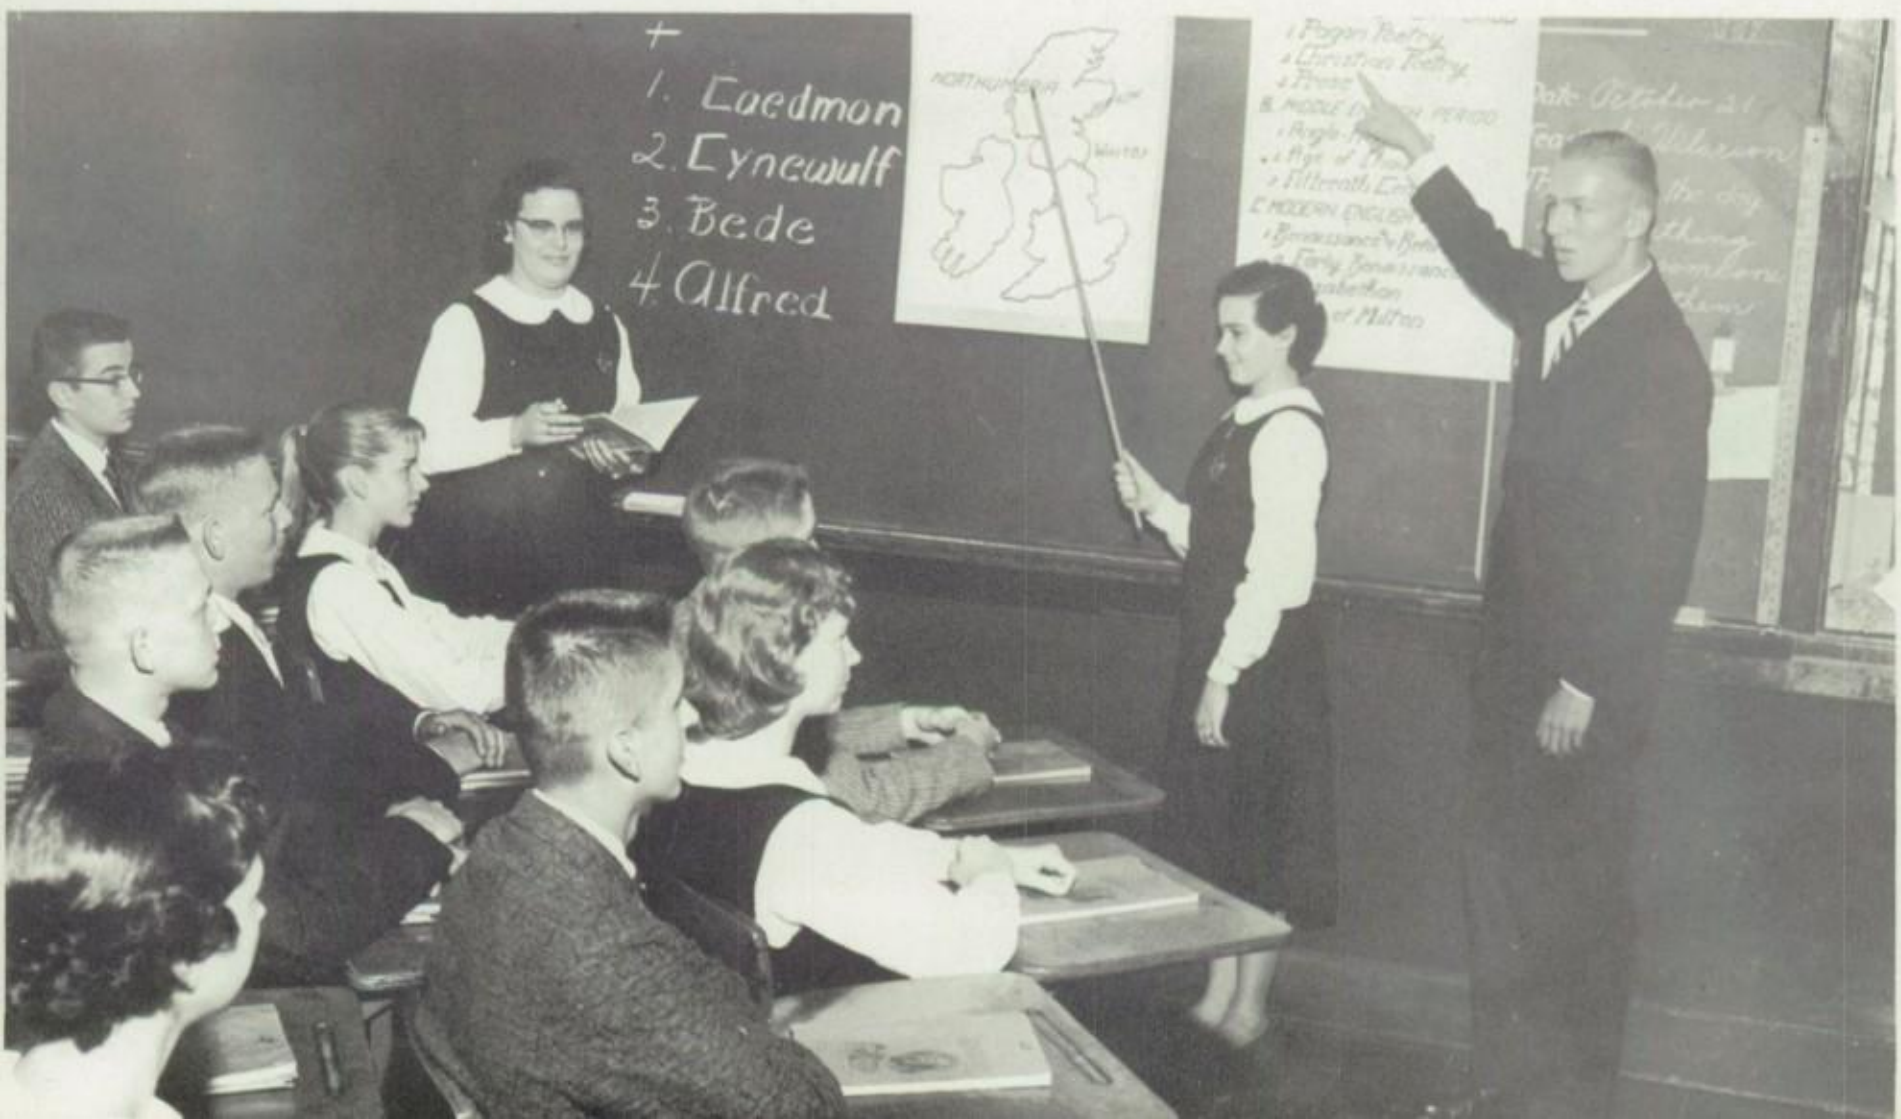
SISTER M. ST. IRMINUS, I.H.M. . . . English III . . . Spelling Club . . . Supplementary Reading.

Better comprehension of printed material helps this Junior English class to develop their reading skills. Carol Munjone directs her question to the students as Magdalene Haas and Ronald Maritch have their answers in readiness.

EAGER Centralites

Master English

Caedman and Cynewulf . . . They are key names in this Sophomore English class. Lucretia Fulmer locates Northumbria, while Raymon Deutsch points out its importance as the literary center of the Christian Anglo-Saxon period of history. Bernard Salabsky is anxious to tell the class about that period's two great historians, Bede and Alfred.



The English Department, conducted by the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, offer a well-rounded course to every C.C.H.S. student. No phase of the language is neglected. We learn the fundamentals in grammar and vocabulary, and the cultural side in literature, and creative writing. The principles we carry away with us will be priceless in the fields of business, journalism, or any profession.

Looking for leads . . . Laying the foundation for writing news articles, members of the News Club, supervised by Sister Perpetua, scan papers for examples of the five "W" leads.

Letter perfect is the theme of this English discussion. Miss Hogan looks on as Anne Bender discusses the art of letter writing. Assisting are Tom Becker, Donna DeLucia, and Dick Cmorey.

SISTER M. REGINA CECILIA, I.H.M. . . . Instrumental and Vocal Music.

Technique and the first chair are the aims of Roger Ebner, Thomas Kunkle, Edward Kubinsky, Frances Solga, and James Muffley as, supervised by Sister Marie Constance, they perfect tone and tune.

SISTER MARIE CONSTANCE, I.H.M. . . . English I, II . . . Music.

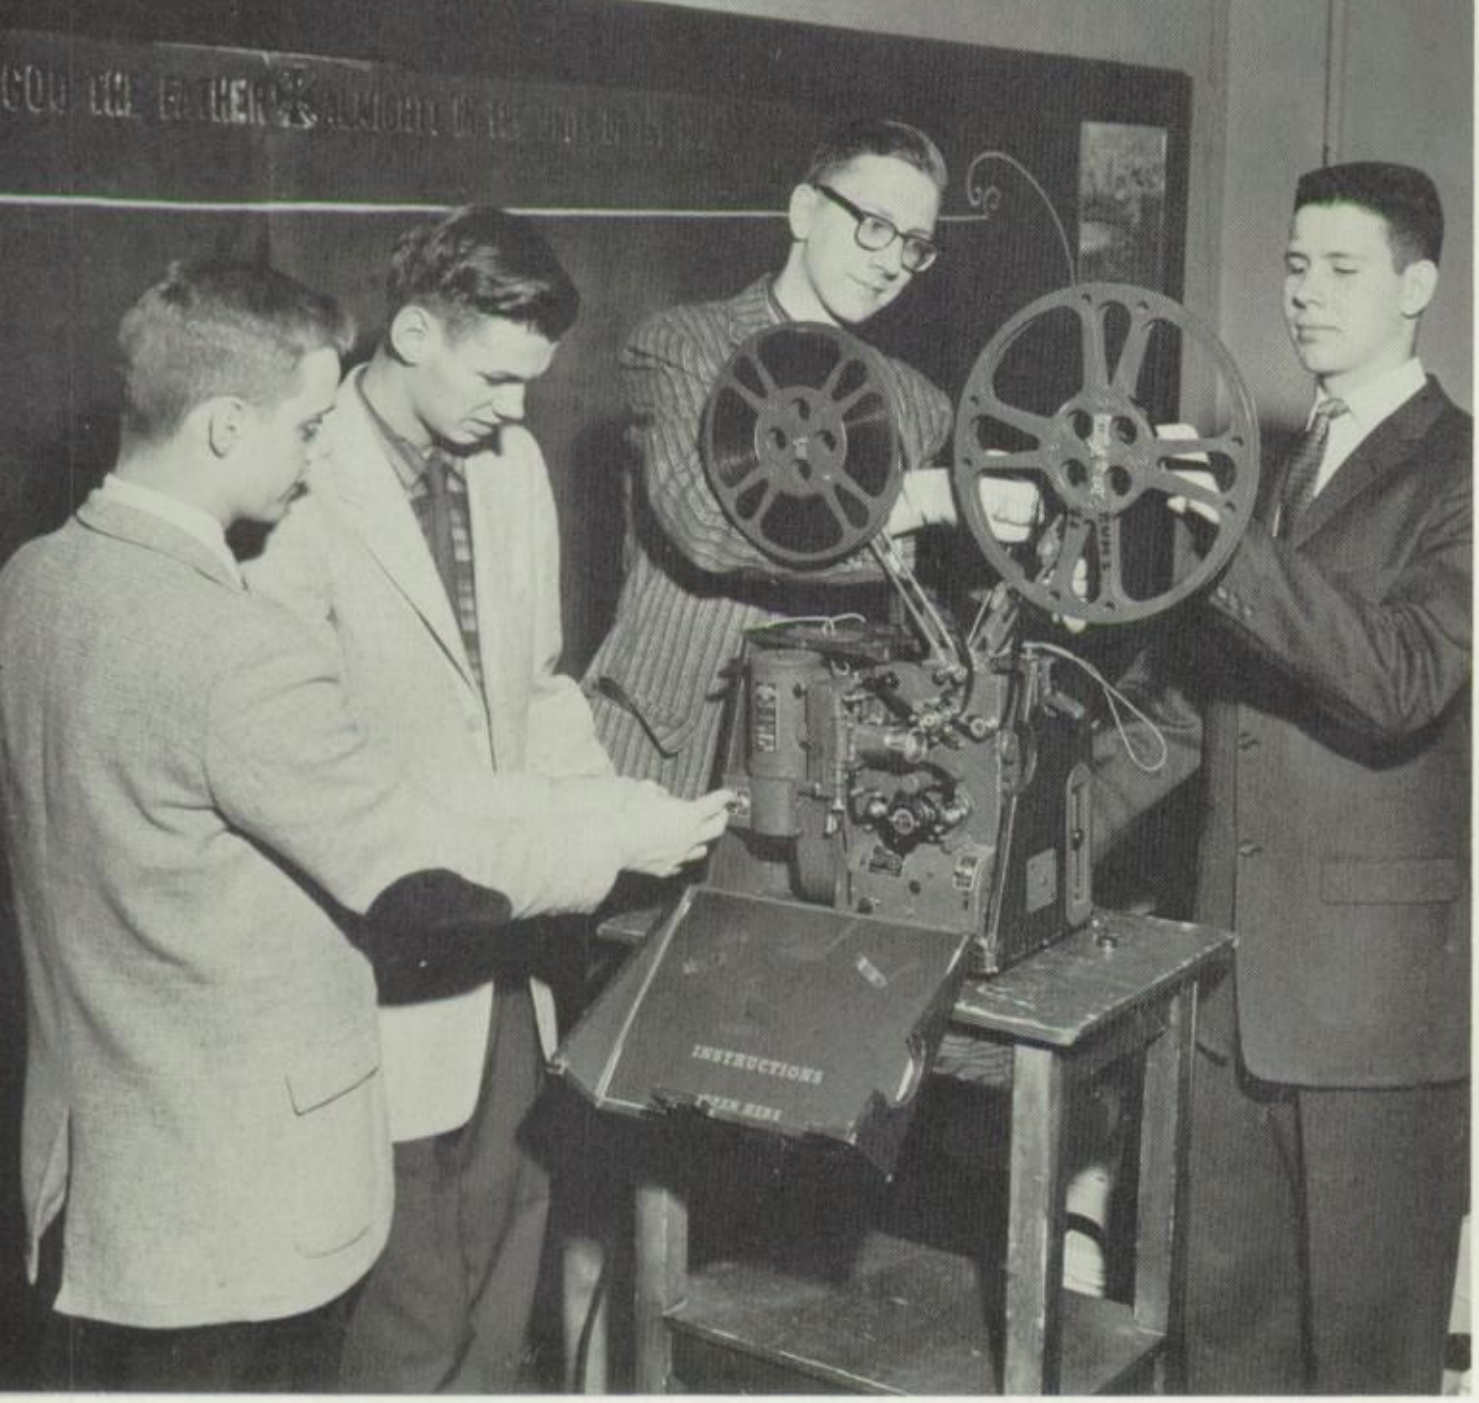
"Silent Night." Strains of carols echo through every room and corridor as the Mixed Chorus practices for the annual Christmas Show. These merry songsters, composed of senior girls, and boys from all classes, are under the direction of Sister Regina Cecilia.

MR. JOSEPH FINK . . . Instrumental and Vocal Music . . . Co-producer of the Variety Show.

From Mt. St. Joseph

in Chestnut Hill, our Sisters of St. Joseph bring a burning zeal for Christ's glory.

The Sisters of St. Joseph, who conduct the Social Studies Department here at Central Catholic, teach the students the American way of life, the history of the world, and National Problems. Since history repeats itself, we learn how to profit by the experiences of the past. Throughout the entire course, the Sisters endeavor to make the students realize that they are citizens of the world, not merely of one state or one nation.



SISTER MARY BARTHOLOMEW, S.S.J. . . . National Problems . . . Visual Aids . . . Head of Social Studies Department.

Testing! Clifton English and Walter Jenkins check motor and sound, while Richard Brown and John Morosky set springs to start the film rolling. These boys are part of the vital team that keeps our visual aids program running smoothly. Films are a great asset in all fields of education.

Sister M. Alma Patricia, S.S.J. . . . World History . . . Visual Aids . . . Girls' Uniforms.

Church or State . . . That is the big question in this freshman history class. Mary Agnes Schroeder, Mary Kay Brinko, Charles Schutz, and Richard Bernini report on the conflict of ecclesiastical and civil authority in France.

It's war! Yes, one hundred years of it. Sally Richardson points to the place of conflict. Charles Marciano explains to Rosemary Gardner that this was the great struggle for the supremacy of England over France.

Sister M. Stella Francis, S.S.J. . . . United States and Pennsylvania History . . . Civics . . . Girls' Uniforms.

HISTORY Lives

"Boys, don't be so anxious!" is what Miss Scheirer seems to be saying while viewing the reaction to her question, directed to an American History class. Jim McGinley appears to know the answer. Maybe he'll save face for the boys.

W. Wunderler, R. Zoble, F. Paulson, H. Mosko, and F. Widdicombe help add to the discussion of government checks and balances in Sister Stella Francis' Civics Class. Through this lesson students acquire a greater appreciation of democracy.

Sister Mary Eileen, S.S.J. . . . United States and Pennsylvania History . . . Public Speaking . . . Dramatic Club . . . Senior Class Play.

Not quite "Utopia"! Sister Mary Clare looks over one of the projects done by this senior Problems of Democracy class in which tomorrow's citizens consider today's difficulties and possible solutions.

Fellowmen, lend me your ears! Karl Siefert tries to interest his classmates as he addresses them in Public Speaking class. The purpose of this class is to help the students, to develop an ability to express themselves before others.

Problems of Democracy and Public Speaking go hand in hand. Because of the many differences of opinion regarding national problems, general debates are conducted to discuss these matters. Problems of Democracy acquaints our students with the social, economic, and religious difficulties that face this nation and its people. Public Speaking helps the student to exercise his freedom of speech and to express his opinions intelligently, sincerely, and confidently.

Presenting mixture problems! Helping Sister Philippia to explain problems involving the mixture of liquids, are Michael Lang, Thomas Hanlon, and Warren Seagreaves.

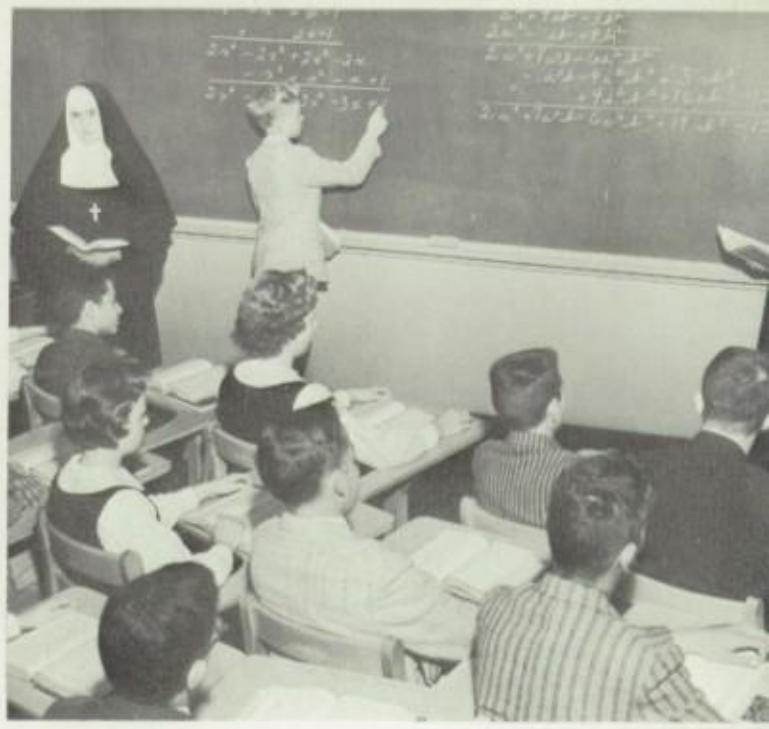
Mathematics, Home Economics, and Art are all important parts of the lives of every student at Central Catholic. To man these departments, we have the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. It is under the supervision of these good Sisters that our students learn the fundamentals so important in the world today.

Catholic Action has also become an important part of every student's life due to the industrious and persevering efforts of these followers of Christ.

Solid findings in solid geometry are the results of hard study under Sister Celine's guidance. Joseph Saks, Suzanne Morrow, Michael Figura, and Dennis Deutsch help explain a problem to the class.

SISTER M. HILDEGARDE, M.S.C. . . . Algebra I . . . Catholic Action . . . Red Cross.

SISTER M. RITA, M.S.C. . . . Stationery Store . . . Athletic Store.



To get ahead is the goal of William Deutsch and Rita Hanzlik as Sister M. Hildegarde emphasizes that the multiplication of polynomials is a preparation for higher mathematics.

Don't mix up your mixtures is the advice of Sister Rita as she explains the necessity of correct proportions in mixture problems. This teaches the student how to reason and concentrate as shown by Ihor Barylak as he sets up and solves this equation. Carol Barlok, Mary Schmidt, and John Goesits check on the proportion.

From Mater Misericordiae

in Merion the Mercy Sisters on our faculty instill in us true Mary-likeness.

Latin and Spanish, two very popular languages among high school students, are taught by the Sisters of Mercy in our language department. Latin I and II lay foundations in grammar for an easier study and better appreciation of Cicero and Virgil in subsequent years.

To help us meet college requirements for a modern language, our Mercy Sisters give an excellent Spanish course.

Speed in Spanish I is important to the student's mastery of the subject. Drills, such as telling time, develop speed and accuracy in translation. Robert Beiner and Patricia Saznski are demonstrating the lesson.

SISTER M. CHARLOTTE, C.R.S.M. . . . Latin I . . . Spanish I . . . Lost and Found.

Translation troubles of Latin I can be straightened out by Sister Charlotte. Madeline Zelena translates the day's lesson orally while the rest of the class work it out silently.

A dillar, a dollar, a Latin scholar. Sister Madeleine Marie makes Latin II look easy. This class enjoys deriving English words from Latin vocabulary. Everyone contributes to the treasury of new words, and the outcome will surely be greater facility in Latin translations.

SISTER M. SILVERIUS, C.R.S.M. . . . Head of the Language Department . . . Latin II . . . Caps and Gowns . . . Lost and Found.

"Caesar, the victorious!" is the cry of Latin II students. James Muffley, Mary Lou Haas, Mary Anne Kotch, Lawrence Mily, Robert Lang, Joyce McCafferty, Richard Kempf, and Regina Ridyard show the class their accounts of Caesar's victory over the Belgians as written in a Latin newspaper.

"Let's get rid of the sag, boys" are familiar words from Mr. Kinek as he urges his gym class to perform more and better push-ups. Physical education plays a very important part in the development of a well rounded student.

Mr. John Compardo . . . Head of the Physical Education Department . . . Boys' Physical Education . . . Varsity Basketball Coach . . . Assistant Football Coach . . . Baseball.

VIKINGS Keep Fit

Mrs. Thomas Wendell . . . Girls' Physical Education . . . Girls' Basketball Coach.

Mr. George Kinek . . . Boys' Physical Education . . . Varsity Football Coach . . . Assistant Basketball Coach . . . Baseball.

It looks so easy until you try it yourself. Mrs. Wendell helps Joyce Brown to steady herself as Marlene Baur balances her in a very difficult exercise called the "Flying Angel". Wings would help a lot.

Mrs. Lawence Henry . . . Girls' Physical Education . . . Cheerleaders.

Pleasant smiles and helping hands are always ready to greet you in our main office. It is a busy place filled with the clickety-clicking of typewriters and the ringing of phones, but they find time to help. Miss Rita Burian at the switchboard relays a message to Miss Margaret Heilman who is busy typing out notices for the P.M. announcements while Miss Gloria Haas checks student's record on the cardex.

They Serve With A Smile

Ready, willing, and able are our maintenance men, Ludwig Sauerzopf, Charles Feichtel, Michael Snyder, and John Keglovitz. These men spend hours repairing and polishing our school making it a more pleasant place to learn.

Look at that food! Busily preparing lunch for hungry students these ladies work swiftly and efficiently. Getting ready for the mad rush at the counter are Helen Pukall, Helen Feirtag, and Mary Keip. Emma McFadden, Eleanor Fox, and Sara Crosland are ready to replenish the supply.

VARIETY SHOW

Gavel, gold pins, grease paint, and great fun are a few of the ingredients of Central Catholic's activity program. As fun-loving as their Viking ancestors, Centralites can find an activity to fit every talent. We have news, copy, and short-story writing for the literary-minded, bunsen burners, test tubes, and formaldehyde for the scientific, scripts, casting, and make-up for our would-be Thespians, vocal variations, scales, and opening nights for the musically inclined, and bats, baskets, and balls for the athletic enthusiasts. Every activity brings new adventure.

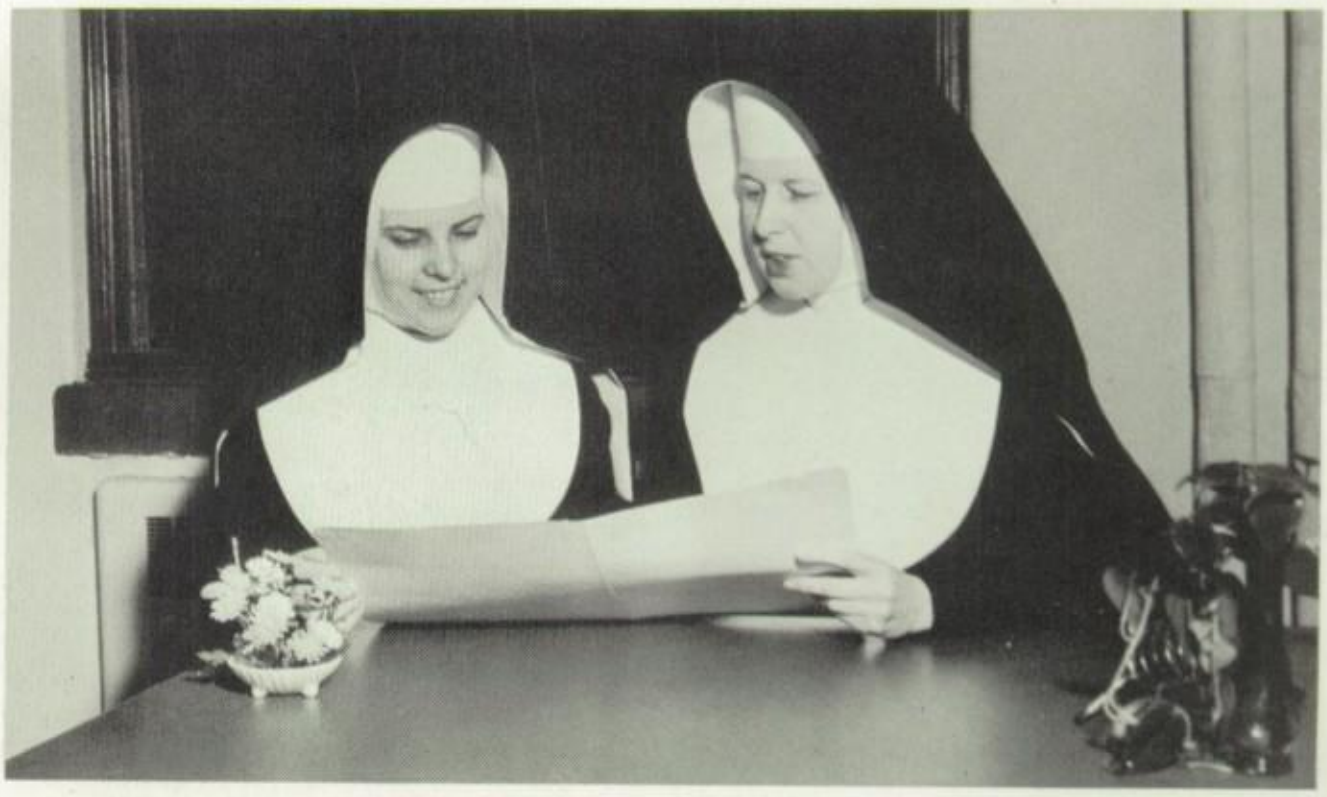
Adventures

LEADERS ALL—In The Student Council.

Vice-president, Lorraine Matuczinski, secretary, Sandra Pammer, treasurer, Joseph Tacker, and president, Thomas Reis, comprise the Central Committee, the heart of the Student Council. The sorting of name cards is just one of the many varied tasks which come their way from day to day.

The Student Council, a link between the student body and the faculty, is headed by the Central Committee — president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. Central Catholic has always appreciated and enjoyed the helpful influence of a good Student Government, striving to attain goals which will improve the school's welfare. These members act as mediators in both hearing suggestions, which students may have to offer, and in carrying out faculty regulations. Checking attendance, patrolling corridors and maintaining order are but a few of their many responsibilities.

Membership in this organization is by student election, conducted in the homerooms, whereby each student has a vote to decide their officers. Much of the success of the Student Government organization can be attributed to the ceaseless efforts of the Central Committee, headed by the president, Thomas Reis. Their influence has given much aid to many of the different phases in school activity.



Student Government Moderator, Sister Patricia Anne, and her assistant, Sister Raymond Therese, continually encourage Student Council members to instill better school spirit into their classmates. During the school year they have been instrumental in bringing success to the Student Council Organization.

Student Council members—Christine Simcoe, Robert Urland, and Marie Miksitz—help students proceed to their next class quickly and orderly. Other officers are strategically posted throughout the school halls during change of classes. These officers insure order and alleviate possible congestion in the corridors, making the school traffic problem a small worry.

The junior and sophomore Student Council members play a large role in establishing better student-teacher relationships throughout the school. Acting on behalf of the students, they have maintained the high standards set by C.C.H.S. alumni.

GLEN ECHOES

That's finished! Work done by staff members must be recorded by the editors. Checking their list of finished assignments are Nancy Hoffner, business editor; Marie Gallagher, associate editor; Al Knauss, sports editor; and Marion Wagner, editor.

Write and rewrite! Each picture in the yearbook must have a caption and each department must have its copy. To fill this need the girls on the staff are found working on the job of creating, correcting, and copying captions.

Sports incorporated! To make sure our yearbook has a top-notch sports section, the boys of the staff are checking the size of each picture and the quality of each caption before they start typing the final copy to be sent to the publisher for printing.

Gathers A Year Into A Glance.

Say, that's good! A staff member's caption meets with enthusiastic approval from Sister Mary Mercedes, I.H.M., present yearbook moderator, and Sister Mary Eufrida, O.S.F., former moderator, as they look up for a moment from a critique on last year's book.

Where shall we go first? There was something to do every minute of the day when the Glen Echoes staff of 1959 attended the Publications Conference for Catholic schools at Villanova.

We salute you, Sister Eufrida! Central Catholic publications owe much of their success to you for your indefatigable efforts over a period of 21 years for the yearbook and 16 of those years on the newspaper. We have a book that we can be proud of. Glen Echoes has rated among the top yearbooks of the state and nation, both in secular and Catholic competitions, for many years. When you turned the publications over to the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart, you gave them prize-winning material to work with. Glen Echoes, with the assistance of Sister Mary Mercedes, to whom you turned over "the keys of the kingdom" last year, hopes to do the same.

Meet Our Prize Winning QUILL.

Welcome to Central Catholic's new literary publication, the Quill. Whether it be in the form of a poem, essay, or short story, the manuscript of any student is welcomed as potential Quill material. All contributions are at the mercy of a competent staff to be "polished" before being submitted for publication. The various press conferences, given throughout the year, give the Quill staff members an opportunity to make personal contacts with today's prominent authors and different literary critics. Sister Joseph Rita adds her expert guidance to the persevering efforts of her staff in the hope of producing another prize-winning publication for Central Catholic.

Busy as bees . . . A tedious job of the Quill staff is screening the many literary contributions of the students. Eager to perform their duties some of the staff members, Bud Wons, Joan Viglietta, Maryann Bensinger, Anthony Skrapits, Roberta Taniser, Maryann Symons, Linda Vettese and Rita Ryan revise and proofread the selected copies.

Looks good . . . is the thought of Rosemarie Fritz and Rosemarie Moran as they recheck copies to be typed by Joanne Balliet and Bernice Solga. Madeline Ionno and Jacqueline Nemeth proofread the typed sheets for any errors.

Everything check, Dolores? Sister Joseph Rita, moderator of our new magazine, checks the deadline dates with editors Dolores Yoo and Edward Zadzora. The Quill, latest addition to our school literary publications, is composed of the work of students. The contributions finally used are picked by the staff.

How about this . . . is what Edwin Murphy and Sandra Pammer seem to be saying to Geraldine Szakmeister and Lorraine Matuczinski as they work to get the Quill completed. All four help compose the Quill's staff.

If It's News, It's In THE SENESCHAL.

Working it out—Faith Henke gives the word about planning a layout to Seneschal staff members. Seniors on top overlooking are Barbara Pfeiffer and Barbara Fuko. On the bottom are juniors: Diana Wauters, Eugenia Shafer, and Irene Barilovits.

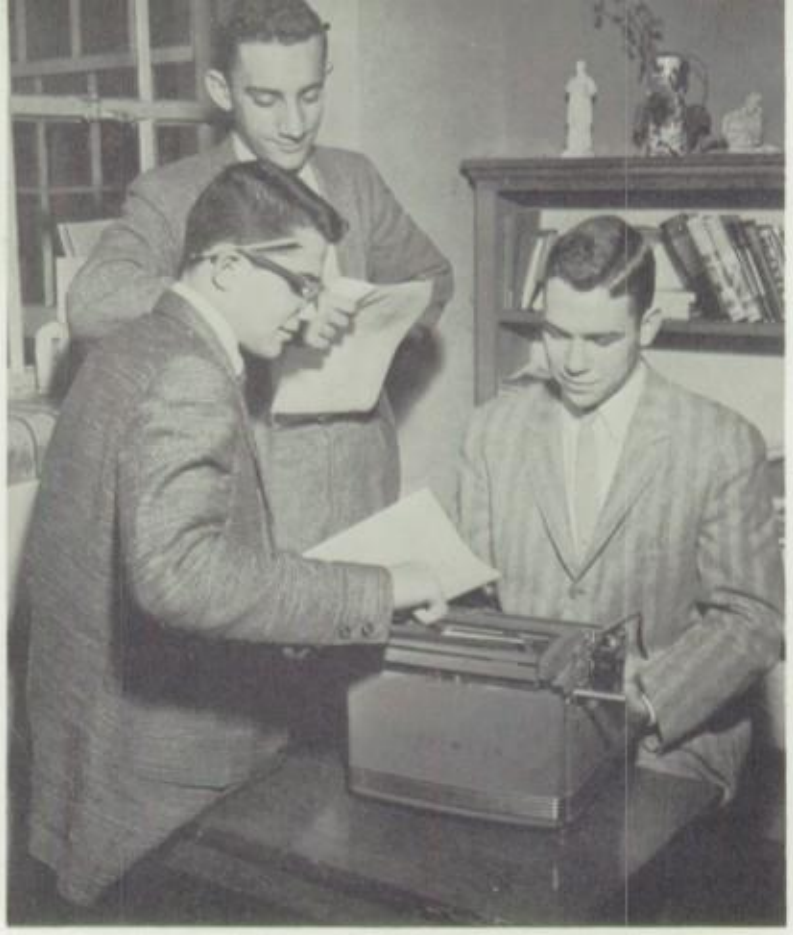
Fold on the dotted line—These five members of Seneschal are preparing issues sent to various schools and parishes. In this way they show to the world Central Catholic in action.

Seal of approval—Sister St. Ignatius gives the final word as she reviews an earlier copy of the school's newspaper "The Seneschal." Looking it over with her, are editors Anne Hanlon and Diana Pieroni.

Seneschal is out! Every month this cry is anxiously anticipated by the students of Central Catholic. But the students are not the only ones who appreciate Seneschal. Our newspaper has won some of the highest awards possible for a high school publication from Columbia and Keystone.

A winning publication requires a winning staff to make it possible, and Seneschal has such a staff. Espirit de corps is felt by all staff members as they work hard and incessantly for their paper. Guiding them on to success is their moderator, Sister Saint Ignatius. Sister has been in charge of Seneschal for the past five years and has given much inspiration to her staff.

Covering local school features, writing thought-provoking editorials, avidly covering sports activities, and humorously reporting school gossip and events, the staff proceeds to give the school a newspaper well worth reading. Is it any wonder it is so eagerly awaited?



Everybody likes a good sport—and these three fellows know what they're talking about when it comes to sports. Thomas Brennan, Emil Sos, and Alex Brincko take care of this department.

Whether it is the difficult job of laying out the first page or only the writing of a headline, you can be sure of a job well done when it comes to this year's Seneschal staff. Their never-ending drive to meet the deadline and their ever-present nose for news has them hopping every minute of the day, every day of the week. Are you looking for hard workers? Go no further.

All I do is dream of you! Catherine McGovern and Marjorie Suppan blend their voices to produce a style and harmony which captivated their music-loving audience.

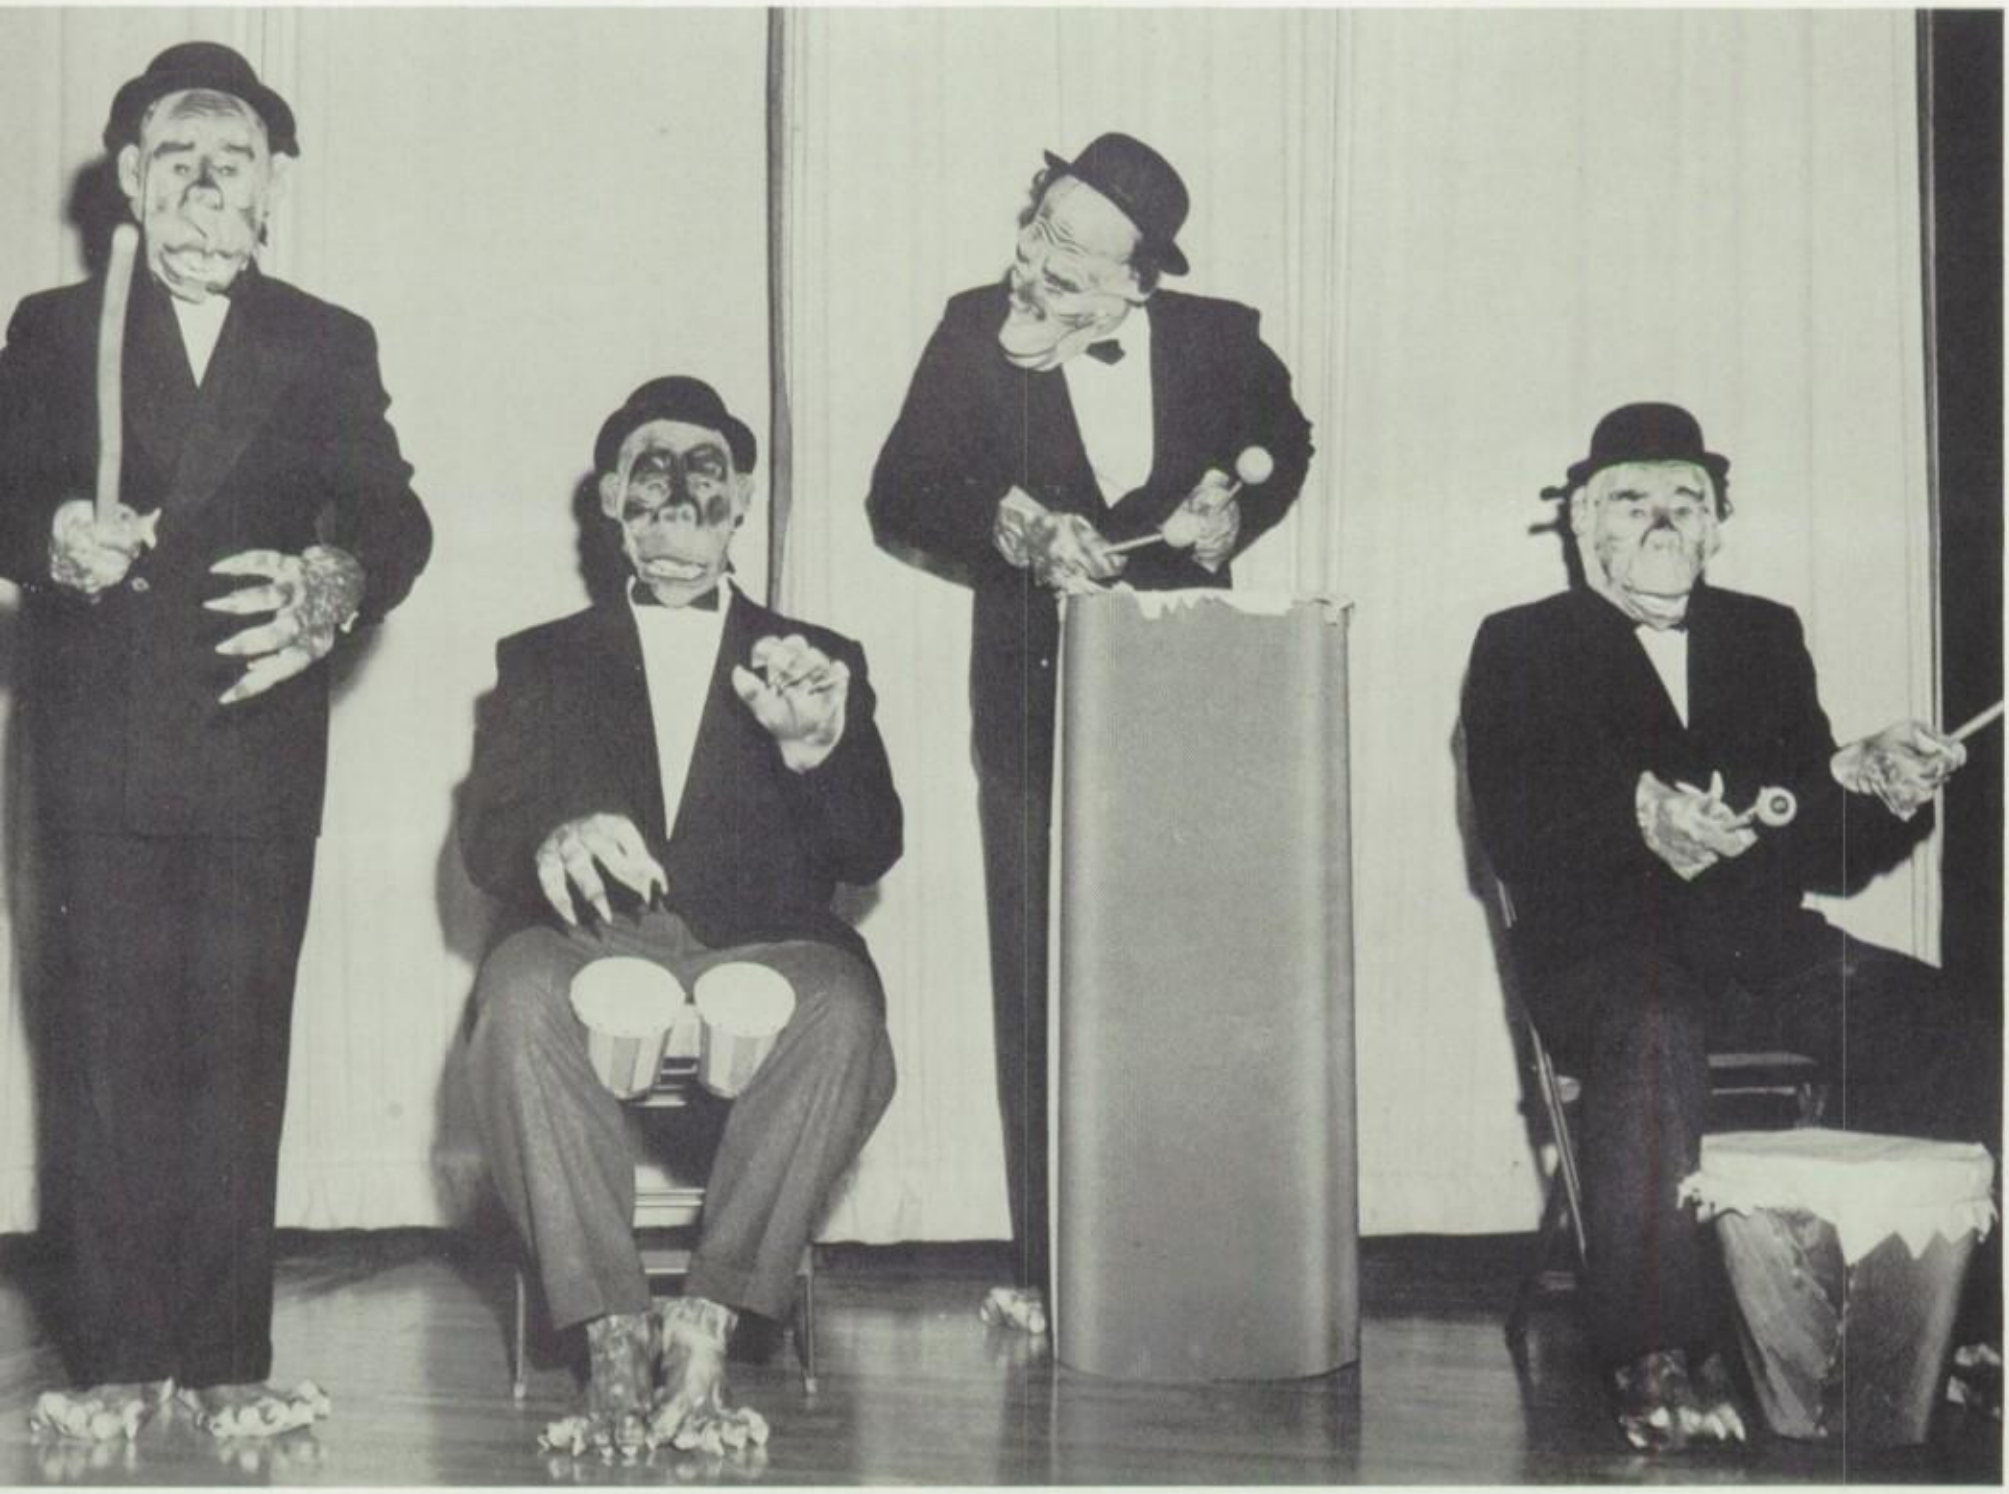
Shades of the twenties! These dancers are reviving the bear hug, one of the most popular dances of the roaring twenties.

Forecast: Showers! But these smiling lasses aren't taking a chance on being caught in duck weather without proper equipment. Their rain gear was part of the act for this modern novelty dance.

"Dick Tracy, Private Eye" as played by Herbert Ruprecht is the surprise guest on "This Is Your Life." He joyfully greets his mother, Mary Ann Bensinger, whose example he has followed.

Barbershop harmony fills Rockne Hall as our own quartet, James Williams, Leroy Ziegler, John Polaha, and Richard Granitz sing to their customers.

Keep Your Sunny Side Up!



Imports! The Music Department went to great trouble and expense to import the Nairobi Trio, consisting of three accomplished musicians: Leo Lucci, Thomas Reis, and Robert Urland under the direction of Christopher Stephens. After completing their final performance, the trio boarded a plane and returned to their native land in Africa.

Hoop-de-doo in it tonight! Jean Friedman, Mary Ann Hopper, Ann Hanlon, and Mary Ann Bensinger take you back to the gay nineties.

Hands! Everyone possesses hands with which they can help others, dry the tears of the afflicted, hold the ones they love, guide their children, and praise their Creator. The entire cast joins with the band to help emphasize the importance of hands. A large portrait of hands folded in prayer is the background for a scene in which students depicted the various ways we use our two great gifts.

Let's all polka . . . is the cry of these lovely frauleins as they awe their audience by highlighting the evening with a different kind of entertainment, the traditional dance of Bavaria.

Drum and Bugle Corps! Not quite, but with their vivid costumes and talent for tapping the drums, these girls gave a military touch to the climax of the first half of the show.

Shall We Dance? Shall We Dance?

Each year the students of Central Catholic unite to produce the annual Variety Show. Participating in this production are the Viking Dance Band, Student Chorus, student dancers, and our own comedians.

Our Twenty-Sixth Variety Show was entitled "Keep Your Sunny Side Up". It portrayed in music the possibility of what our world would be like "If Dreams Came True", and if everyone were "Sorry I Made You Cry". It kept the audience's "funny side up" by the antics of the Nairobi Trio and the "Life of Dick Tracy". The dancers, in turn, left everyone's feet tapping to the lively polka, old-fashioned soft shoe, and the pulsating drum dance.

Lamplight and Loveliness! Eleanor Stupak captivates Tim Marsden's attention under the glow of a London lamppost. A foggy day in London Town is the setting for the dancers.

Al-li-op! and up goes Al Knauss as the boys in the polka steal the limelight from their lovely dancing partners. The clapping and shouting of Gerald Leary and Francis Solga give an added zest to the already lively dance.

Dancing In The Orient Under The Wings

Dancing and dreaming to the strains of Matt Gillespie's orchestra are hundreds of junior and senior couples. Dim lights and formal finery added glamor to the dance.

Even the chaperones enjoyed themselves. Anne Krajsa, Thomas Lake, Monica Tsiker, and Louis Eisenhard stop to chat and soon learn that the students have no monopoly on the fun.

Of Madame Butterfly.

"Junior Prom very special time", said an old Chinese philosopher once. To one hundred and eighty junior and senior couples this couldn't have been more true. From the first moment when they entered Rockne Hall on that magical Thanksgiving eve, they were transported to the strange, mystical Land of the Orient.

Greeted by "Madame Butterfly", who witnessed the proceedings from her ricksha, the gay, young couples danced to the strains of Matt Gillespie's orchestra.

To climax the evening, the coronation of the king and queen took place.

When the clock struck twelve, this fantasy, like all fantasies, came to an end. The philosopher was right, it was a very special time.

Time out for a coke! Even during a prom, one gets thirsty, as is proven by Jack Morosky and his date Mary Kucharik. The amused onlookers are Joanne Swartz and Robert Sugra.

The Junior King and Queen! Gregory Deutsch and Carol Marchetto start their reign as Father David Morrison looks on. After receiving their crowns, the band played a waltz in honor of the royal couple.

Home by 11:30? Hoping Dad isn't serious, these happy couples leave for the Prom.

SENIORS Score Dramatic Triumph . . .

Prepare with a prayer. Father McNamara, assistant director of the Senior Class Play, gives the cast his blessing and wishes them success. This year's show was like the preceding years, a success. It is a source of calm confidence in the minutes just before curtain time.

"Do you really love me?" Albert (Michael Maloy) asks Pam (Mary Ann Judd) ardently, after a mutual confession that neither is wealthy. In spite of deceptions, Albert looks as though he is on the verge of a very serious proposal.

Lights, curtain, action . . . A reliable stage crew is just as important as realistic actors.

"I won't say I'm proud of you, my boy . . ." says Conrad (Edward Zadzora), whose feeble consolation leaves Steve (Anthony Skrapits) as bewildered as ever. Poor Steve has just fallen victim to a carefully planned and heartless scheme to entangle him in a marriage that is somebody else's idea.

Eggs, cackling hens, and smelly feathers wouldn't catch a husband for anyone. Realizing this, the Mason sisters, Elizabeth, Pam, and Moira decide to sell their chicken farm and get away from these handicaps. Using the money from the sale, they go to a luxurious resort. Since there is not enough money for each girl to act well-to-do, one pretends to be the rich, mysterious, Miss Mason, the others her maid and secretary. The plan, when put into practice, results in many hilarious situations.

Presto—Make-up artists, Barbara Fuko and Betty Marx, change Joan Viglietta into Elizabeth Mason and Diana Pieroni into Mrs. Alice Bramber.

Sleepy isn't the word for Henry (Joseph Hoek) as he unwillingly yields to a double dose of sleeping pills. The three schemers, Moira (Cornelia Ward), Pamela (Mary Ann Judd), and Elizabeth (Joan Viglietta), who administered the drug, lead Joe to a room where he will be no obstacle to their giddy escapade.

"Don't be tiresome, Conrad." Alice Bramber (Diana Pieroni) sarcastically reproaches her brother, Conrad (Edward Zadzora), for his playful chiding.

"She's a chicken farmer." Henry (Joseph Hoek) startles Albert (Michael Maloy) and Alice Bramber (Diana Pieroni) with the truth about the Masons.

Presenting Three Blind Mice.

Spotlighting the senior members of the dramatic club, the class of '59 presented "The Three Blind Mice". The production was under the capable direction of Sister Mary Eileen and Reverend John McNamara. Many weeks of hard work, not only for the cast but also for the production committee, the make-up committee, and the stage hands, helped to make every performance a great success.

Pamela Mason (Mary Ann Judd) and her sister, Moira Mason (Cornelia Ward) rejoice after successfully delaying Henry Trowbridge from making known their true identities.

"I will always remember you as being the most wonderful vulture I've ever known." With these words Albert DuPont (Michael Maloy) tells celebrated gossip columnist, Miss Nosey Parker (Agnes Steckel), part of the truth about the Misses Mason.

"My father was old T. J. Mason's valet; my mother was the upstairs maid. That was in the other place, the one that burned to the ground," explains Moira Mason (Cornelia Ward), pretending to be the maid, to Steve Harrington (Tony Skrapits), nephew of a wealthy playboy. Steve takes an interest in Moira, although he sees no reason why she should be content with her lot in life.

All Hail To Thee,

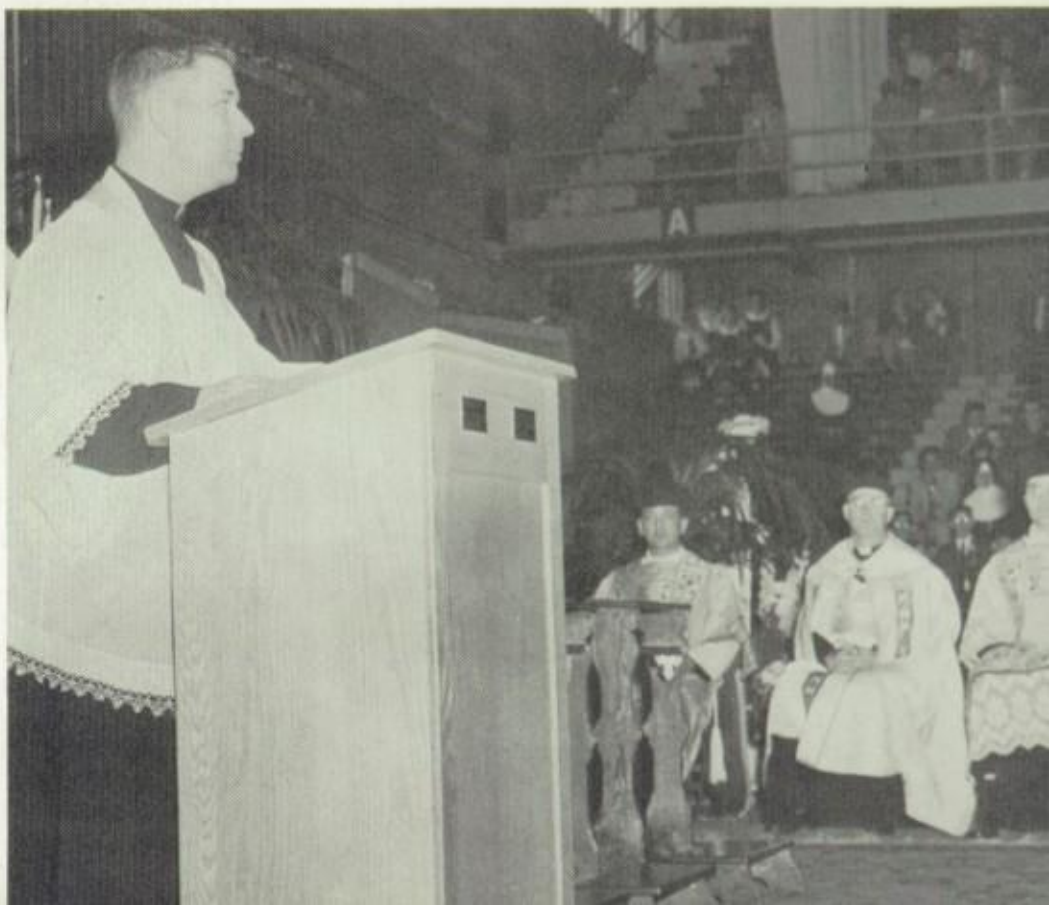
DEAR MARY.

May, traditionally the month of our Blessed Lady, is filled with ceremonies proclaiming her Queen of Heaven and earth. Here at Central Catholic, we pay homage to our Heavenly Mother in our Annual May Procession. The most solemn assembly of the school year, the May Procession is the climax of month-long ceremonies honoring Our Lady. Consisting of the living rosary, an appropriate sermon, coronation of Our Mother, and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, the May Procession is a fitting tribute to the Mother of God and our Mother.

Our May Queen pays homage to our Heavenly Queen of the May! Chosen to represent the entire student body, our May Queen, Anna Godiska, pays homage to our Blessed Lady immediately preceeding the coronation ceremony.

"Keep Mary as your ideal," says Father Morrison, our Spiritual Director, who gave an inspiring sermon to the students

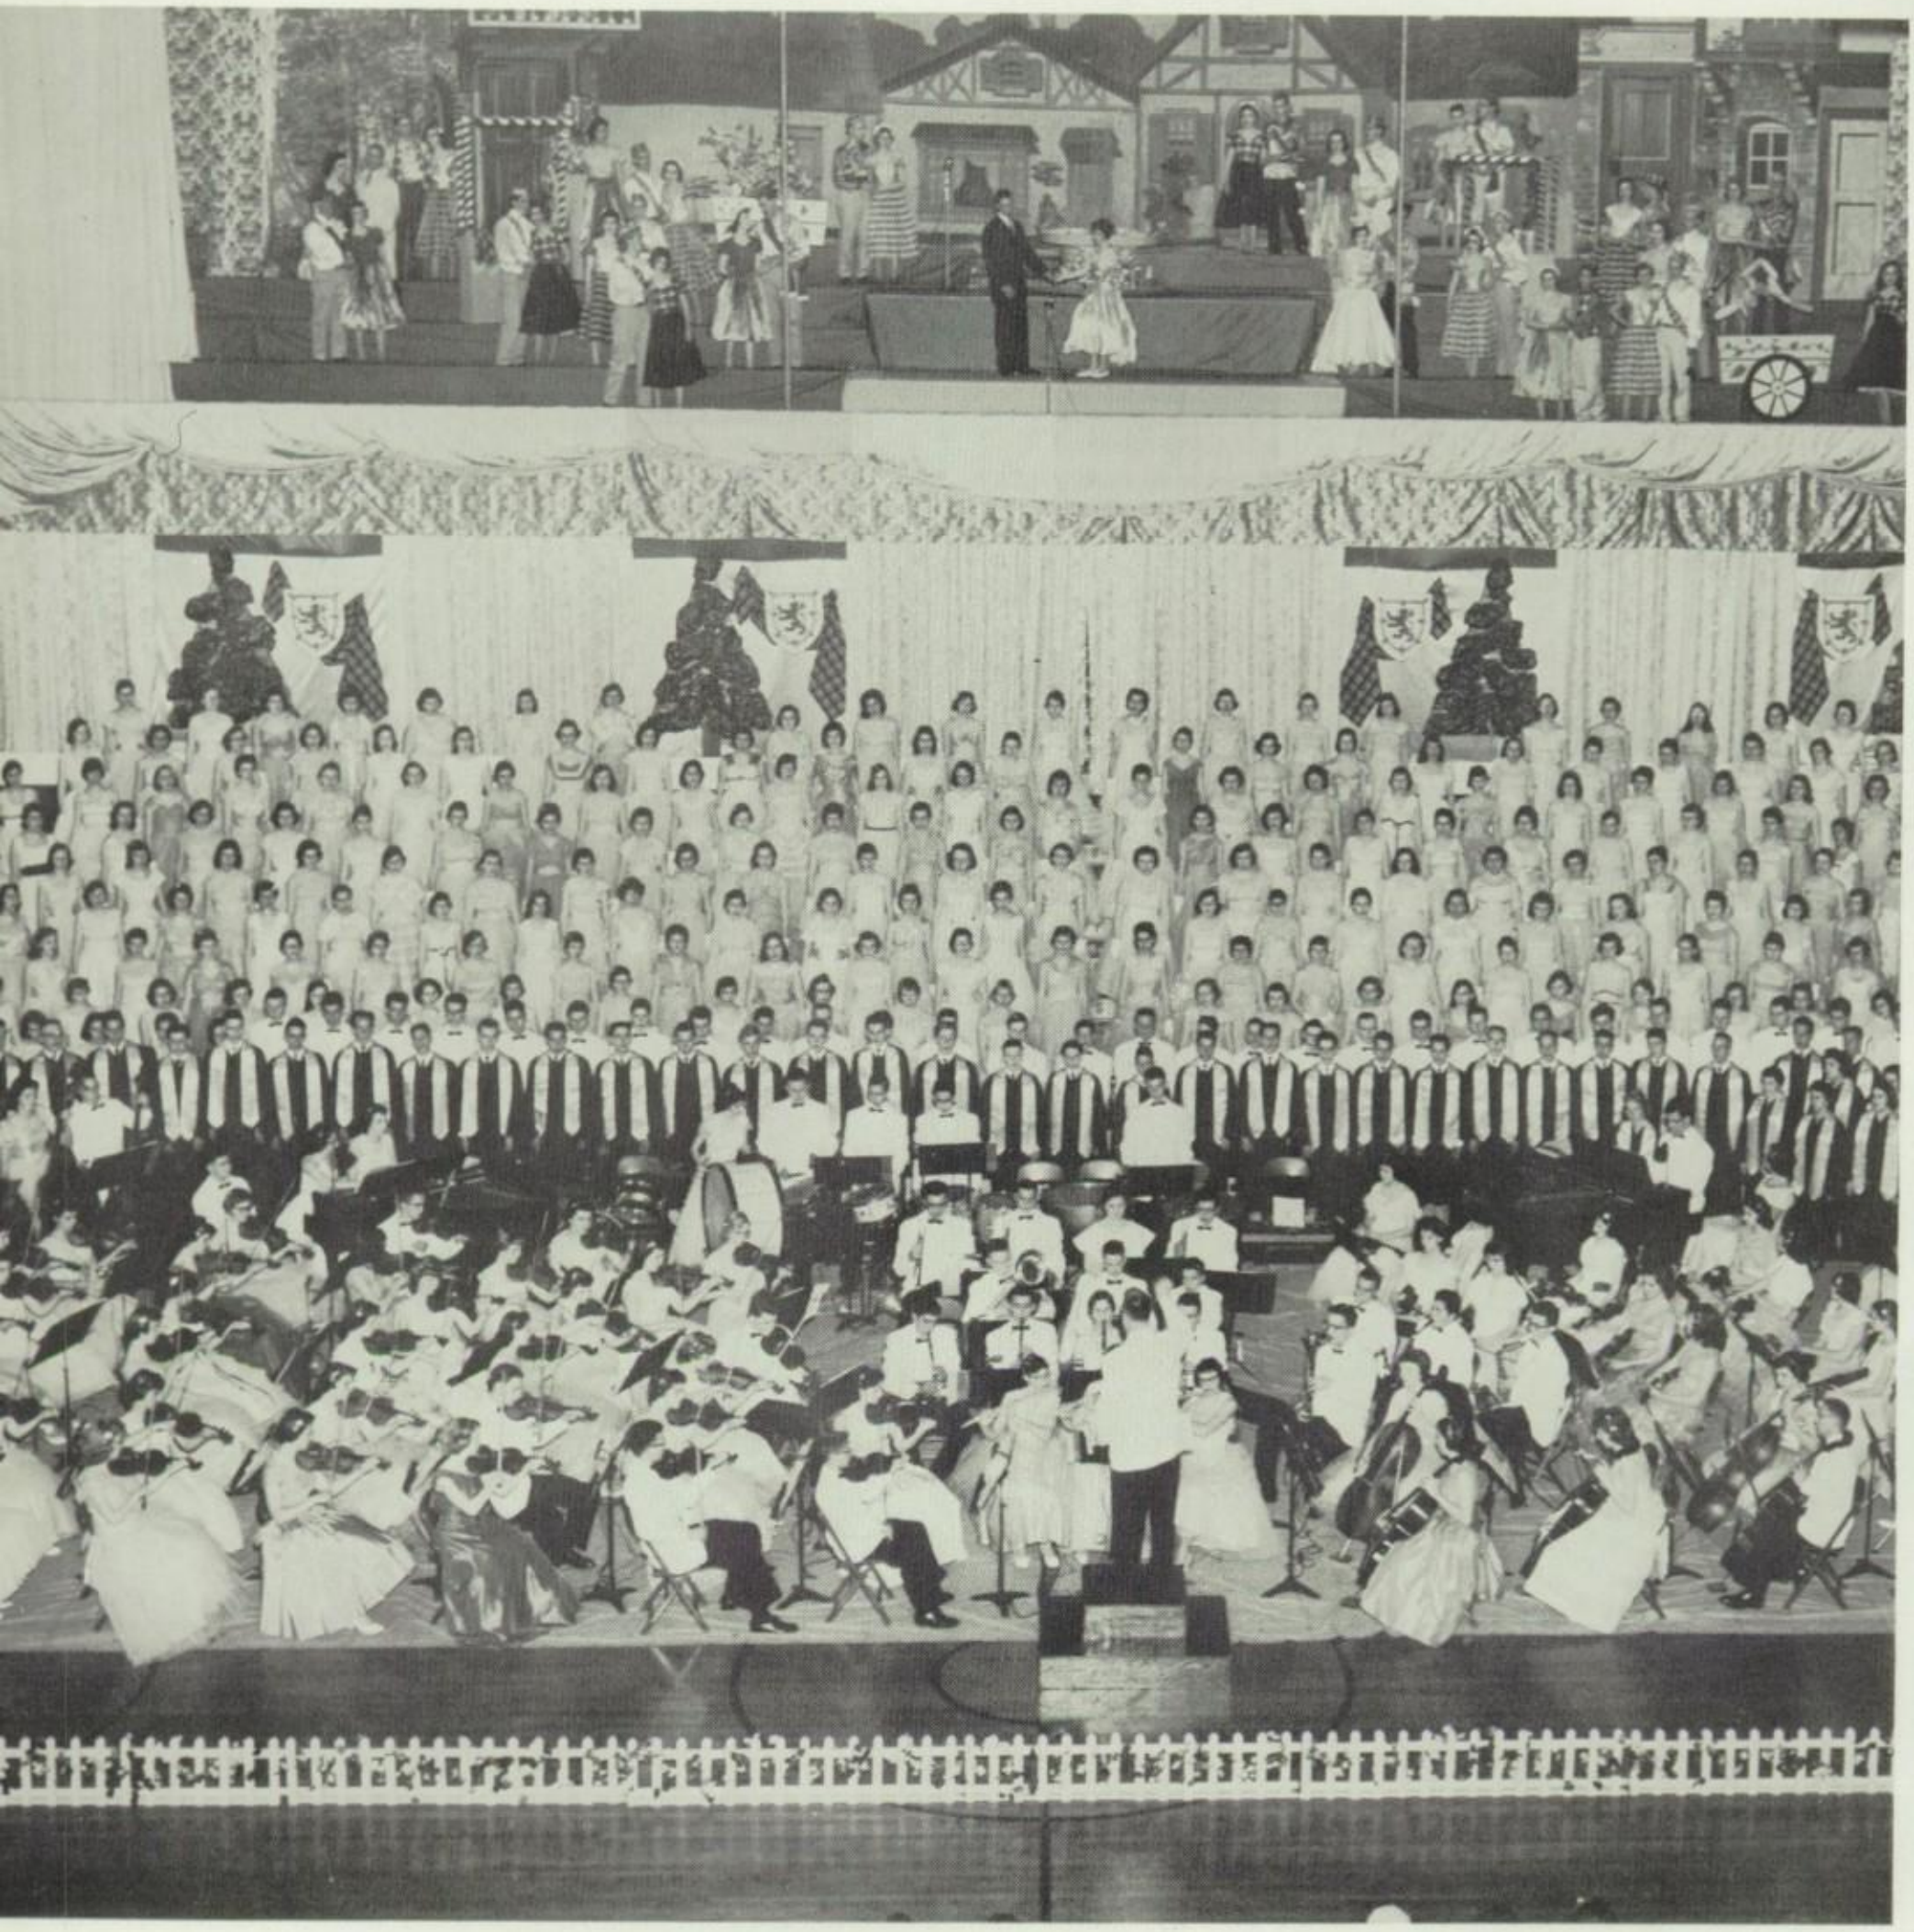
O Salutaris Hostia! As the close of our annual May Procession approaches, Father Daday, our principal, gives the student body his blessing during Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Assisting father are Father Strassner and Father Loeper.



Hail Mary, full of grace! As sixty-seven seniors formed a living rosary, the entire student body paid tribute to Our Blessed Lady in our Annual May Procession. Leading the rosary were our principal, Father Daday, Father Strassner, and Father Loeper. Following the rosary, the students pledged their fidelity to Our Lady in the Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

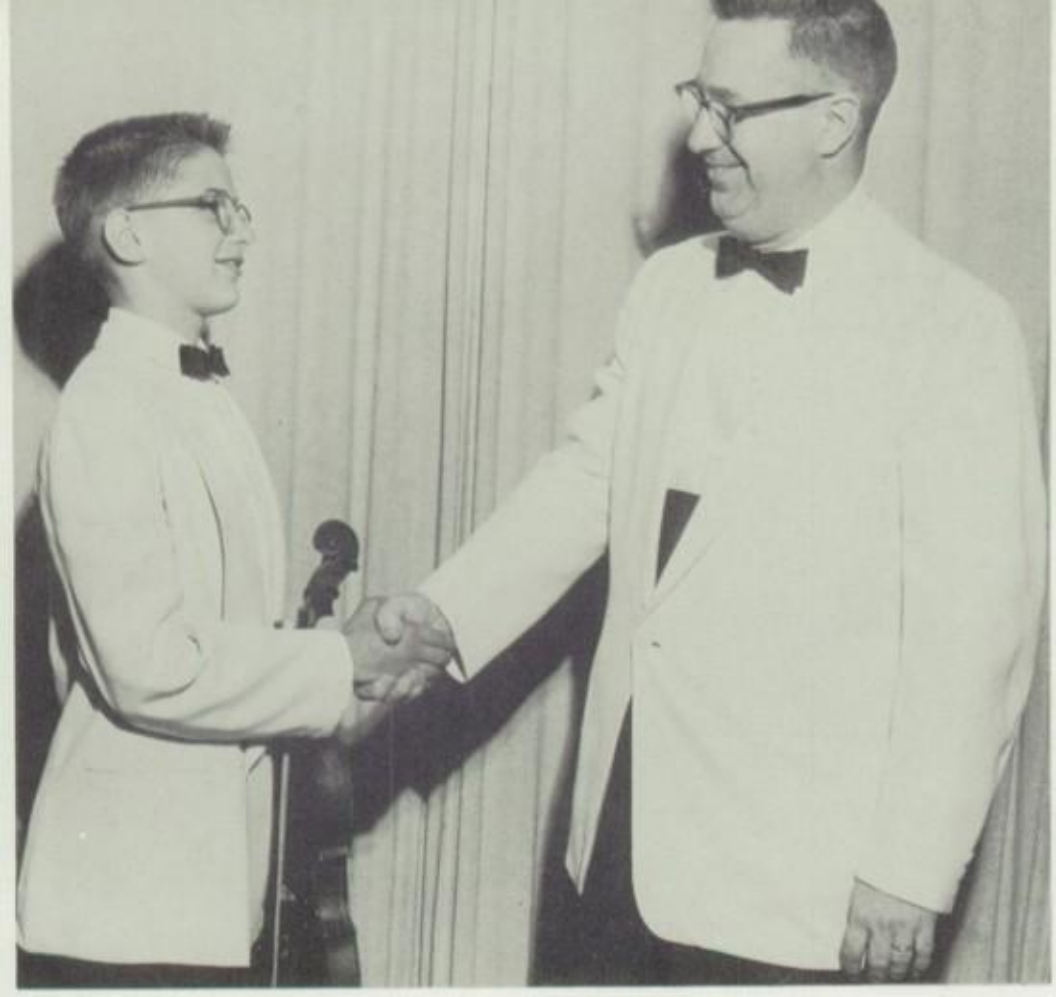
This year our May Procession began with the traditional Lourdes Hymn. Following the singing of this inspirational hymn, our May Queen, chosen by the votes of the senior class, crowned our Blessed Mother Queen of May and of our Hearts. The members of Our Lady's Group, a division of Catholic Action, form a court of honor as they pay homage to their Mother, Mary. The Procession closed with the singing of "All Hail to You Dear Mary."

"O Mary, We Crown Thee With Blossoms Today" — As the student body sang this beautiful hymn, Anna Godiska, our May Queen, crowned our Heavenly Queen, Mary.



Summing it all up! Rockne Hall resounds with the melodious strains of the show's theme song "Brigadoon." Attentive to director Mr. Joseph Fink's every cue, band, orchestra, chorus, glee club, and dancers combine to give us a Grand Finale we shall not forget. A lovely story with our favorite music as a background comes to a happy end as does another great success in the long line of Musicales. Underclassmen swell with pride; seniors with tears.

Musical Moods Are Created . . .



Atta boy Pete! Mister Fink congratulates Peter Bilan, who was one of the many outstanding soloists in the Muscale. Besides being concert master, Peter enraptured the audience with his violin solo.

All set gang! Director, Mr. Joseph Fink, with a wink seems to be telling his members that he's about ready to start with the opening number on the program.

Another Musicale in the making! The various musical organizations diligently practice their parts for the show. The thought that regular school uniforms will soon be discarded and replaced by glittering gowns is encouraging the girls. As boys don white dinner jackets, the picture is complete. Instruments are polished up; voices are at their best and next thing you know—the show's on.

The moment approaches! Amid a feeling of anxiety and before-the-show butterfiies, the members of the music department pensively tune up their various instruments. Because of years of experience Sister Regina Cecilia understands these feelings and waits to give help where it is needed.

The Musicale—our pride and joy—The Mixed Chorus, Girls' Chorus, Orchestra and Band combine their talents to produce our Spring Musicale. The co-operation they give Mr. Fink, their director, Sister Regina Cecelia and Sister Marie Constance, their teachers, results in top entertainment.

By Our Fine ORCHESTRAL GROUP,

The orchestra outdid itself in the 20th annual Musicale in numbers such as Richard Wagner's "Introduction to Act III Lochengrin". Other selections which they presented were "Entrance of the Sirdar from Caucasian Sketches" and "Copa Cabana".

Also taking part in the show was the Girls' Glee Club, which is composed of freshman and sophomore girls. Besides combining with the Freshman Girls' Chorus to present a number, they also sang "Your Eyes Have Told Me So".

The Feshman Girls' Chorus made its first public appearance in the Musicale. Besides taking part in the songs for the prelude and the finale, the girls stepped out on their own to present a song of Norway, "Freddy and His Fiddle". In union with the Glee Club, they also sang "One God".

New to the show, but learning fast—This charming group, the Freshman Girls' Chorus, is gaining valuable experience for later years by participating in the Musicale. Hours of practice and hard work mean lots of fun and a good show in the end.

GIRLS' CHORUS . . .

Brigadoon, Brigadoon. The curtain is drawn at Central Catholic's 20th Annual Musicale revealing the lost village of Brigadoon during its once-a-century resurrection. The villagers have gathered around the stone fountain to spend this long awaited day singing and dancing.

MIXED CHORUS

Members of the Mixed Chorus donned Scottish togs to make possible a spectacular finale. Blending their voices in a medley of tunes from the Broadway stage hit "Brigadoon", these young vocalists captured the undivided attention of each new audience.

The Band found time from its many duties around school to put in its annual appearance in the Musicale. In the second half of the show the band displayed its talent in selections such as "March—His Honor", "A Mozart Festival", "Juke Box" and "Prairie Reflections". These musicians, under the direction of Mr. Fink, also take part in performances at the Christmas assembly and football and basketball games. They entertain all who listen, with a professional style.

And Band.

Music Maestro please. The Girls' Glee Club and the Band present an attractive feature at the Spring Musicale. They are pretty as a picture and their music is even better. Their melodies thrill the heart and their persevering hard work is enough to make their Alma Mater proud of them.

BRIGADOON Lives Again

"I'll go home with Bonnie Jean," Paul Grim sings on his wedding day. Paul sweeps Geraldine Sakmeister, the smiling Bonnie Jean, off her feet as he announces to everyone his affection for her.

"The mist of May is in the gloaming" as the townspeople of Brigadoon merrily bring down the curtain on the Spring Musicale with this catchy Scottish tune.

What's so fascinating? Members of the Mixed Chorus seem to be captivated by something in the square. Clad in colorful Scotch costumes, typical of the townfolk of Brigadoon, they are eagerly awaiting their cue to sing the familiar Scottish airs.

The 20th Annual Spring Musicale takes a curtain call. Six hundred and fifty students, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Fink, Sister Regina Cecelia, I.H.M., and Sister Marie Constance, I.H.M., dedicated their efforts to Our Lady of Lourdes in the prelude of the show. The program featured the talents of the Mixed Chorus, Girls' Glee Club, Freshman Girls' Chorus, Orchestra and Band. When the finale, Brigadoon, arrived, the flash of tartan plaid, the smell of the heather and the hum of bagpipes seemed to pervade Rockne Hall. Brigadoon, a town in the Scottish highlands, by some miracle disappeared to return only once every hundred years. Two Americans stumbled upon this town during its resurrection, and one of them fell in love with a town lass. This scene was highlighted with songs such as "Go Home With Bonnie Jean", "The Heather on the Hill" as well as the theme song "Brigadoon".

As The Talented Cast Brings Our Production To a Grand Finale.

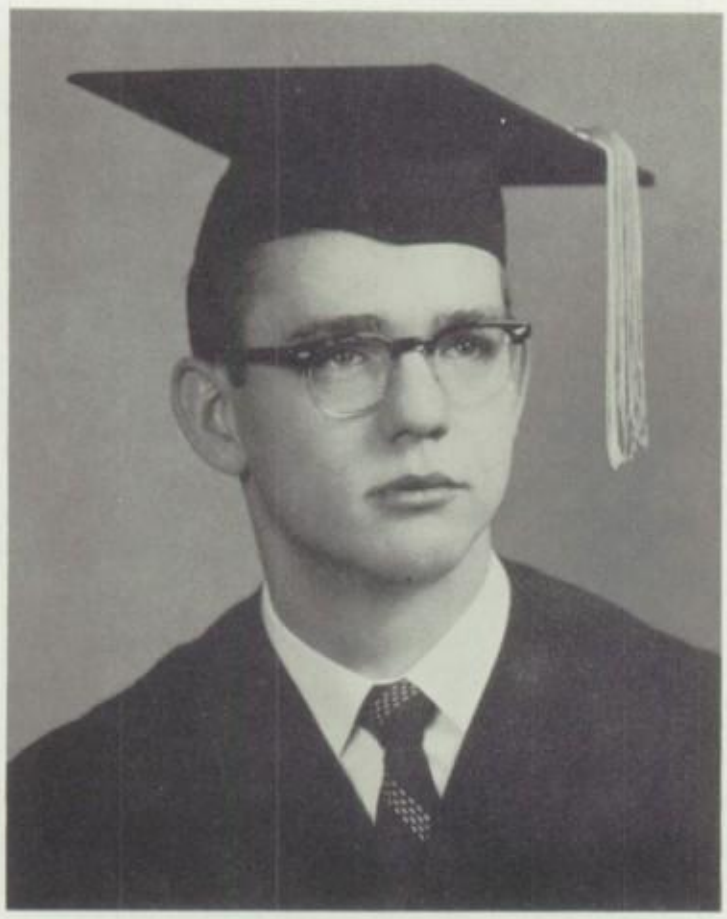
Leading their classmates for the final time, the members of the Central Committee carry the flags of our Church, school, and country as they march into Rockne Hall.

That's a record! Rev. Stephen J. Daday, Rev. Henry Strassner, and Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward M. Reilly are pleased that forty per cent of our graduating class has been accepted in colleges throughout the United States.

"Pomp and Circumstance" fill the air as the thirtieth annual commencement begins. Proud seniors slowly file into Rockne Hall in their coveted caps and gowns which signify the culmination of four years of scholastic endeavor.

"VIKINGS" Step Into The Future.

DIANA F. PIERONI
Valedictorian



JOSEPH J. TACKER
Salutatorian

"Congratulations, Father! They are a class to be proud of." As graduation ceremonies come to a close our principal, Father Daday, confers with our guest speaker, the Right Reverend Monsignor Edward M. Reilly.

The pride of wearing a cap and gown, the satisfaction of holding our cherished diploma, the effort of restraining an unruly tear, these are ours as we approach another milestone along the road of our education.

For four years we have hoped, strived, and prayed. Now the long-anticipated day is here! The days that seemed so interminable when they were passing now appear to have flown. Yesterday we toiled; today we graduate. How did we climb the ladder of our school days, surmounting difficulties, anxieties, and weaknesses? How? By the helping hand of parents and teachers, men and women dedicated to insure our spiritual, mental, and physical future. We thank you for what you have done. We thank you for this day.

TNT TALENT

Cheering in the Rain. Rain-soaked senior cheerleaders, Doreen Dougherty, Constance Guardino, Mary Anne Hopper refuse to allow this dismal day to dampen their spirits; they cheered us on to a soggy 25-0 victory over the Cardinals of Reading Central.

Willie on the move! Halfback Bill Williams cuts around end leaving a Kenrick player on all fours.

Fight team fight! appears to be the spirit of our cheerleaders and fans who hopefully watch the Viking opener at St. Matt's of Conshohocken on a sunny Sunday afternoon.

Clear weather, a warm breeze, shouting fans and a fighting team ushered in the 1958 football campaign. The Vikes clashed with the Mirrors of St. Matt's in a tremendous first game. In the closing minutes of the first half a fumble set up a score for St. Matt's. The conversion was good and they led 7-0. Early in the third quarter, Ed Conti broke off left tackle and ran 61 yards for the TD. Tomasko added the point for a tie.

Anxious for their first win, the Vikes met a well-rounded Hazleton eleven on Hazleton's home grounds. Central's defensive did a marvelous job pushing Hazleton for loss after loss. Finally, the offense took over when Conti grabbed a handoff from Tom Reis and dashed 63 yards for the score. Early in the third period, Hazleton scored on a long pass; their conversion was good and they led 7-6. Ed Conti clinched the score by eluding the defenders for the winning six points.

AND TECHNIQUE Tell The Tale . . .

Straight up the middle is this Notre Dame halfback's only hope, as Central's forward wall of defense converges on the play. It's quite a predicament for this Notre Dame man to be in, with Leo Lucci and Bill Williams springing the trap with the aid of Slafkosky and Lisicky.

The Vikings, enjoying one of their best football seasons, met defeat at the hands of Bishop Kenrick High School of Norristown in an E.P.C.L. encounter. Playing heads-up ball, the Vikes jumped to a quick 6-0 lead in the first quarter. However, the Bishops, led by Ricky Falcone, retaliated, and with Falcone scoring twice, led at halftme 20-6. Coach Kinek's squad showed some of its winning stuff in the second half, holding Kenrick scoreless while tallying one touchdown themselves. The Bishops' first-half lead was too much and the Vikings lost 20-13. Stars in a losing cause were Tommy Reis, Fran Pyne, and Bob Urland. The Green and Gold's only other defeat came against Cocalico Union High of Denver, an undefeated, untied, and unscored on Pennsylvania football power. The Vikes were in the thick of battle all the way with Ed "Aubrey" Conti, Central Catholic's candidate for all-state honors, spearheading the attack. Teaming up with our general, Tom Reis, on quick openers and end sweeps, Conti neared paydirt several times, but shoestring tackles stopped him. Central Catholic's stubborn defense held the Eagles to their lowest scoring total in absorbing a 21-0 defeat.

Playing their first home game of the season, the Green and Gold mauled Bishop Egan High School of Levittown, 45-0. Unleashing a tremendous ground attack, the Vikings proved too much for their East Penn Catholic League opponent. Willie Williams, Eddy Conti, Tom Reis and Mike McLaughlin all pushed across six pointers in our best offensive showing of the year.

Of Our VIKING TEAM

"I've got it." A vicious tackle and a quick recovery set up another Viking touchdown.

Although the Hilltoppers of Pottsville took a 6-0 lead the Vikings came back with a landslide of touchdowns. The fireworks started with Tony Toth scoring and Ron Tomasko converting. After the Vikes recovered a fumble, Tom Reis flipped a 26-yard touchdown pass to Steve Lisicky. The quarterback option play was then used to score three TD's, two by Ed Conti and one by Tom Reis. Two final tallies rounded the score at 45-12.

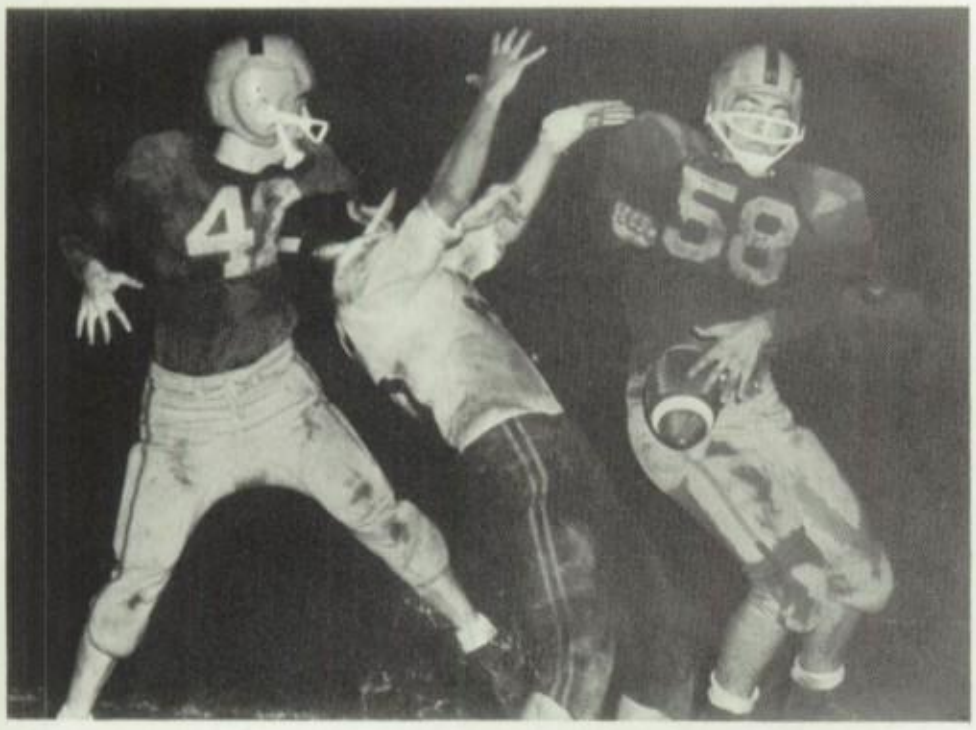
Playing host to RCCHS, the Vikings crushed the Cardinals 25-0 to brighten a gloomy day. Conti scored two TD's, thus breaking the junior year record of eight TD's held by Coach Kinek. Tom Reis's 21-yard pass to Slafkosky and Toth's score on an option play accounted for the other two touchdowns.

The Vikings closed out the 1958 football season with a 26-0 victory over Notre Dame of Green Pond. Ed Conti set a new record of 10 TD's as he scored on a 60-yard run.

In the second half, Williams scored a TD which startled the fans as he raced 64 yards through the middle of the Crusader line. The balance of the Vikes' scoring resulted from a 19-yard pass to Tony Toth and a one-yard plunge by Tom Reis.

The reliable option—The option play has been one of the leading ground-gaining plays of the year. Reis, about to be tackled, prepares to lateral the ball to Conti.

"Sorry to get in the way but"—Lisicky throws a block to help send Conti on his way to a record breaking touchdown. Ed Conti, only a junior, averaged better than 100 yards a game during an 8 game season.



Good pass defense is guaranteed to the Vikings as shown in this play. Junior defensemen, Fran Udicious and Steve Lisicky guard a Mountaineer end during the Vikes' upset victory over Hazleton.

Catch me if you can! Senior halfback, Tony Toth, successfully eludes a potential tackle as he races toward the goal. This play helped spark our 45-0 victory over Bishop Egan.

The Old Vikes—Completing their high school football careers are linemen: J. Slafkosky, F. Zieger, R. Urland, and L. Lucci. In the backfield is Coach Kinek with his co-captains, A. Toth and T. Reis. Missing are ends: A. Skrapits and R. Tomasko.

JV'S Imitate Their Big Brothers

"Follow me!" shouts Mike Zaia with anxiety as he prepares to punch a hole in the opposition's defense to allow his hustling teammate, Joe D'Annibale, to pick up a large gain, and set up a game-winning T.D.

Late in September, the Junior Vikes opened their grid campaign for 1958. Tom Gabriel passed the pigskin through the Parkland defenders and hit Benkovic and D'Annibale for TD's. Callaghan, a freshman, scatted around end for another score, and Pammer plunged through the line for the extra point.

Northampton's Junior Varsity came from behind to nip the Vikings 20-13 in their second game of the season. The Vikes' outstanding TD runs consisted of 15 and 20 yards by Mike McLaughlin and Joe D'Annibale respectively. The game stood tied with minutes to play, when the Koncrete Kids stole the game.

Three quick passes proved fatal to our up-and-coming Vikes when they traveled to meet the onslaught at Easton. The Red Rovers moved easily through the first half, scoring all three of their touchdowns. The second half proved more promising; the young Vikes' defense was exceptional, but the offense just could not get that final push. A fumble on the Easton 25-yard line ended their best offensive bid.

Hitting paydirt early in the game, the Vikes threw up a strong defense which kept the Hurricane eleven puzzled play after play. The Vikes pushed their way 65 yards down field, and then Callaghan hit Andy Slafkosky with a pass good for 25 yards. The drive ended in a perfect climax when Jack Tate carried the ball around end for the score.

Deadlocked, the Vikes and the Allentown Canaries played scoreless ball until the final period when Allentown broke into a 6-0 lead. This did not halt the Viking spirit; they drove hard and penetrated the Allentown defense. With seconds remaining, the Vikes fumbled the ball and Allentown won 6-0.

TOP NOTCH VIKES

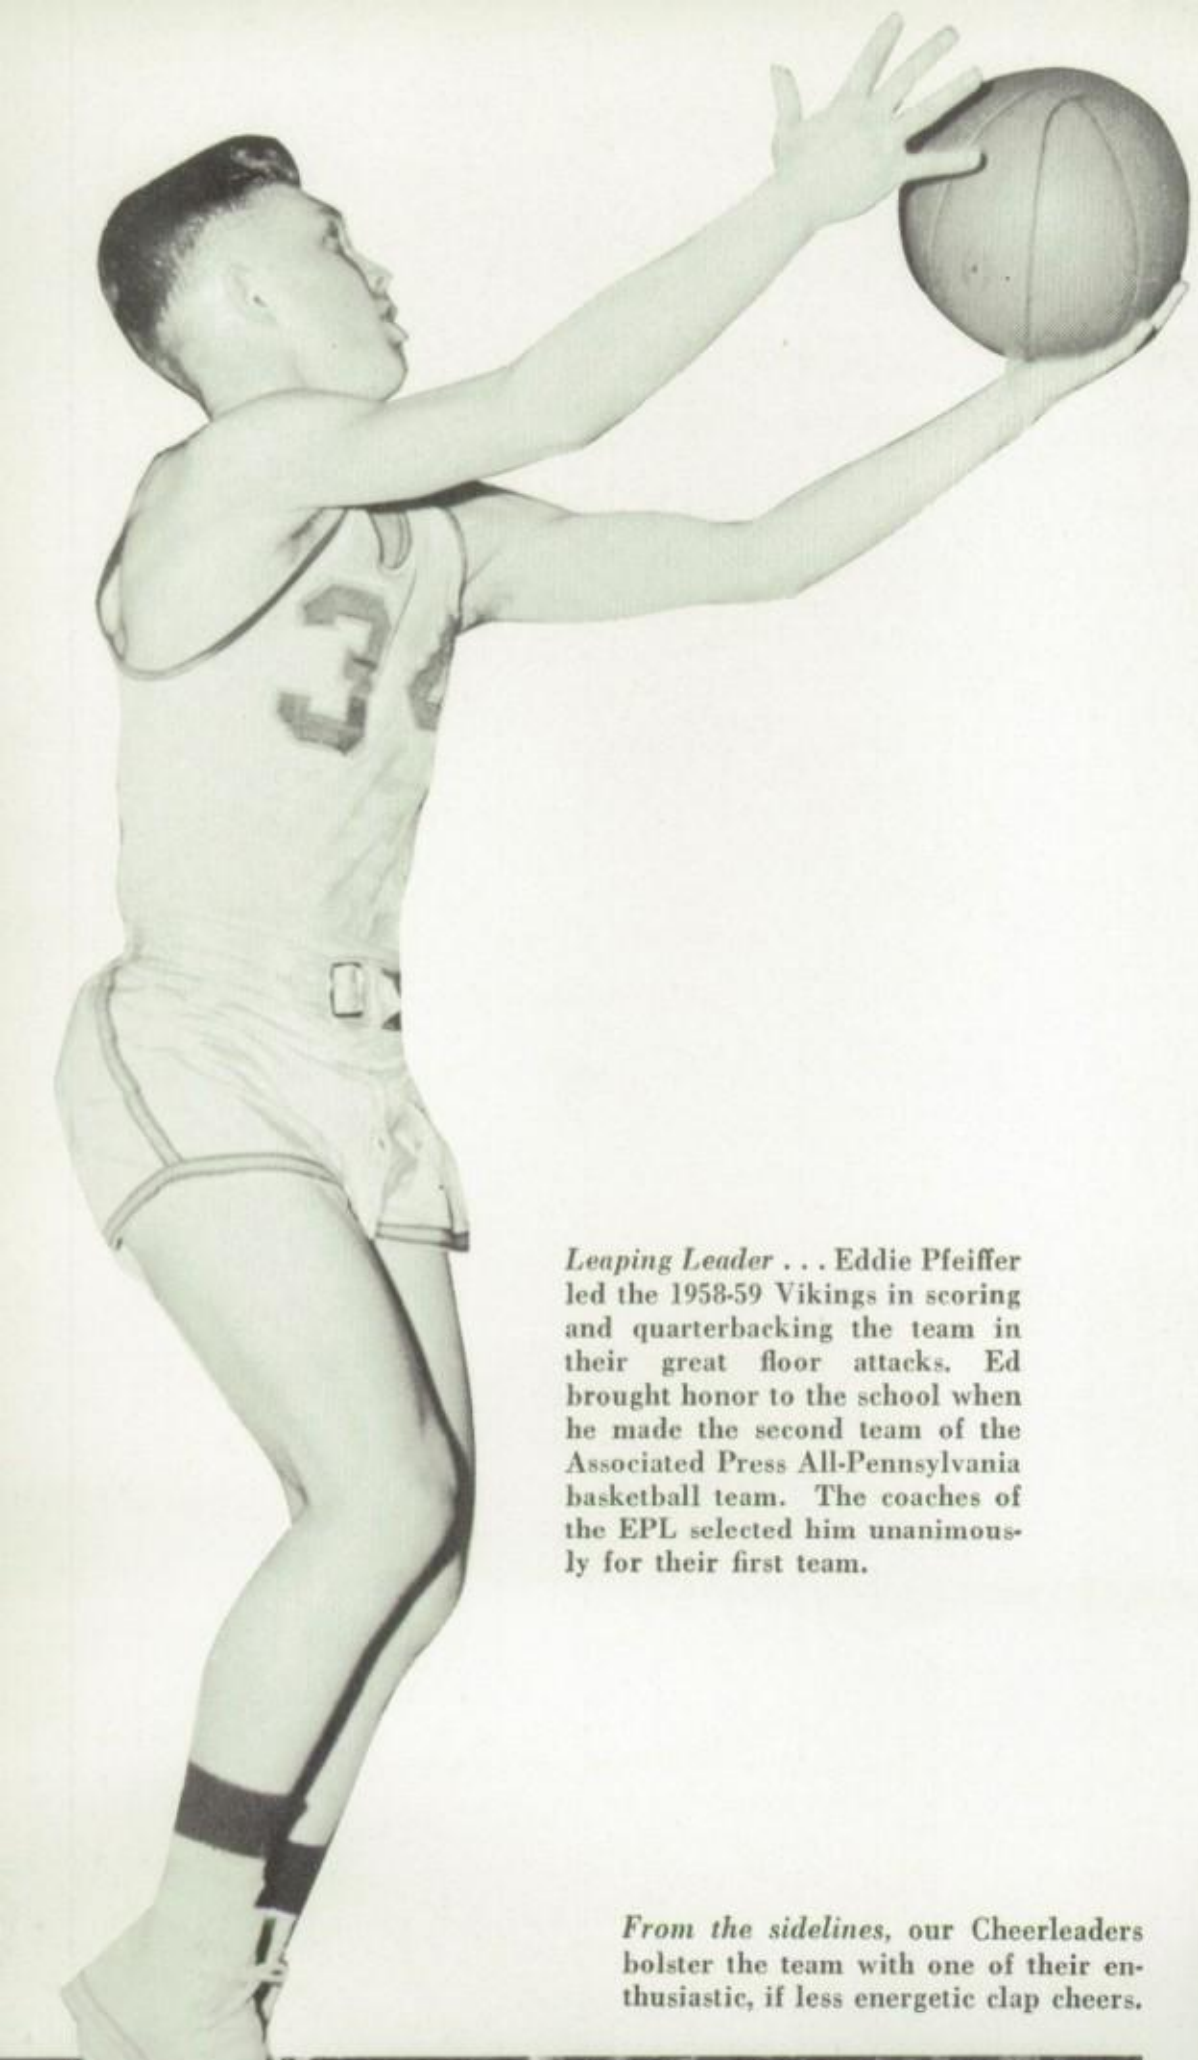
Finishing their regular season basketball schedule with a 16-6 record, the Vikings entered the P.C.I.A.A. playoffs bidding for their seventh state title. Rolling up a quick 17-6 lead, the Vikes coasted to their first playoff triumph of 77-54 over Bethlehem Catholic behind Ed Pfeiffer's sensational floor work and 21 points. Adjusting themselves to Reading Central Catholic's first quarter zone defense, the Vikings piled up a 59-29 win while holding the Cardinals to 9 points in the entire second half. With two down and three to go, Central played an underrated Bishop Kenrick team as the Knights continuously chopped down several comfortable leads by the Vikes. A last quarter freeze combined with needed foul goals pushed the Green and Gold to a 62-51 win. Trailing Bishop McDevitt 27-22 at halftime, the Vikings ran the Crusaders off the court with a terrific second half comeback to win 63-48. The Viking five overcame Crusader height with speed and sharpshooting. A stout-hearted team with a following of 22 busloads of enthusiastic Viking fans convoyed its way to Pittsburgh for the state championship game. With dauntless courage, they met the fast, hot, skyscraping Trojans of North Catholic. Having considerable height advantage, Pittsburg took the state championship 82-67.

The 1958-1959 Varsity Basketball Team. Due to the expert skippering of Coach Compardo and the co-operation of his well rounded crew, the Vikes sailed a prosperous course this season. They brought home numerous honors and victories. Here they are. Standing: Ed Pfeiffer, Bob Spang, Tim Marsden, Tom Reis, Fran Demko, Bob Lang. Kneeling: Larry Horinko, Jack Tate, Al Pappano, Mike Dellisant, Greg Deutsch, Joe McCafferty, Gary Plessl. Missing in the lineup is Joe Sarmir.

Back up, Chip. Easton's Chip Oldt seems to oblige as Fran Demko gracefully sweeps in for an easy two pointer.

Buried bone : dog :: loose ball : Pfeiffer. Ed Pfeiffer struggles with Bethlehem Catholic opponent for possession of the ball. Ed usually comes out with it.

Vie With The Best



Leaping Leader . . . Eddie Pfeiffer led the 1958-59 Vikings in scoring and quarterbacking the team in their great floor attacks. Ed brought honor to the school when he made the second team of the Associated Press All-Pennsylvania basketball team. The coaches of the EPL selected him unanimously for their first team.

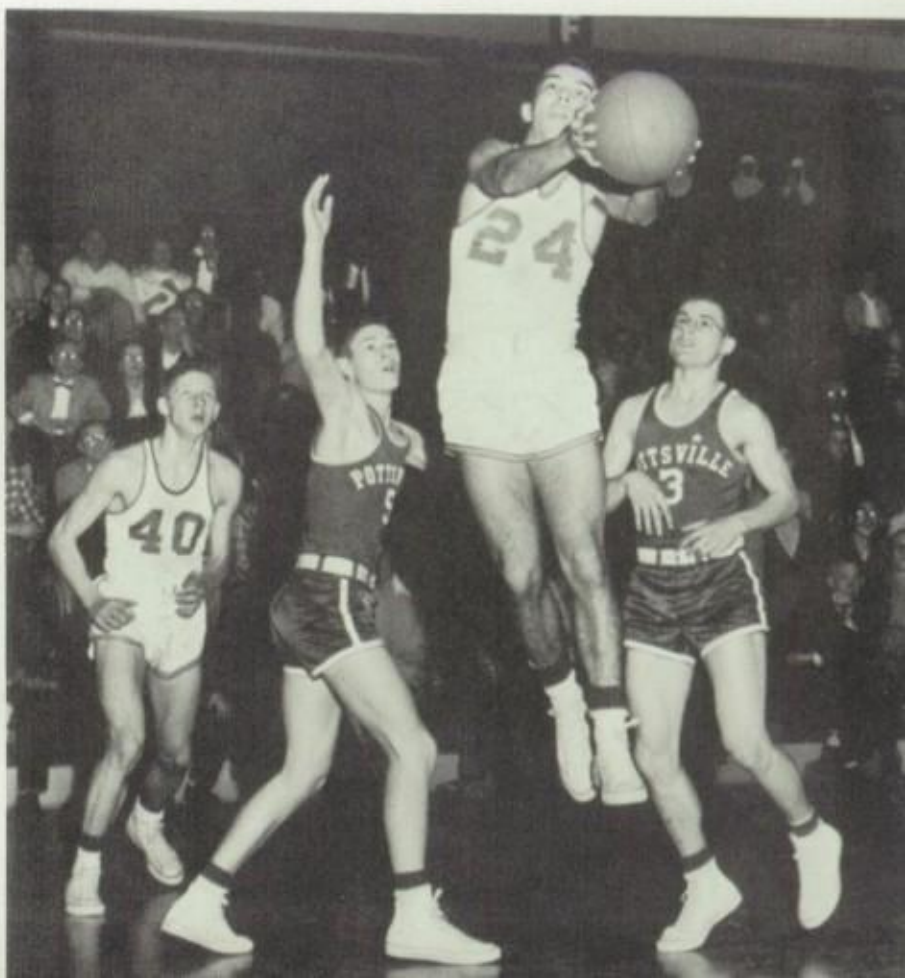
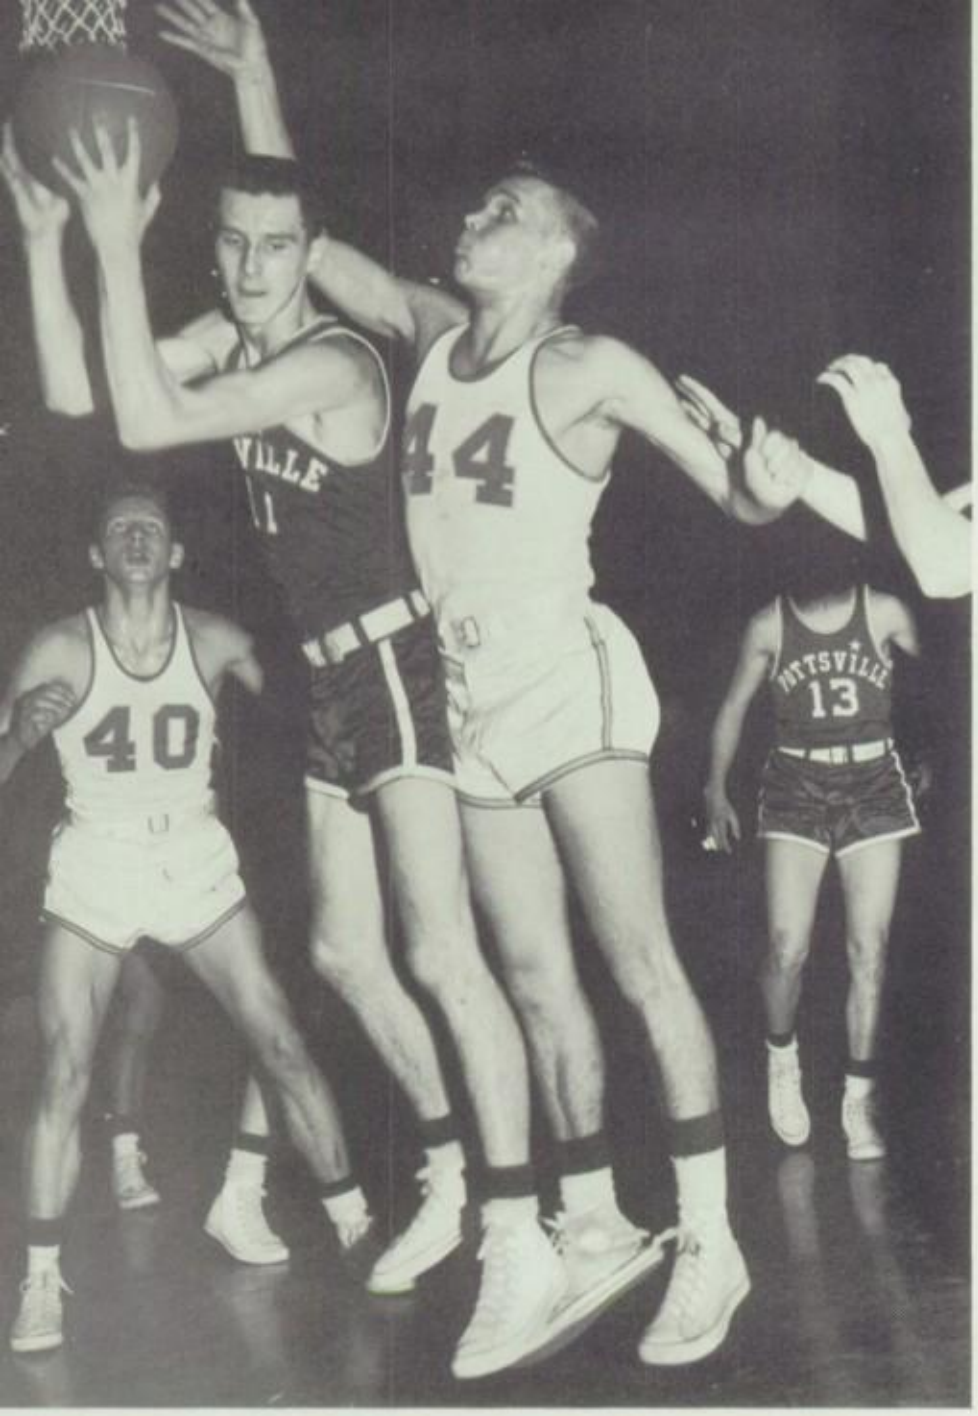
It's as easy as that! Tim Marsden, after leaving two Pottsville opponents limp with his spectacular maneuverability, goes in for an easy two-pointer as teammate Fran Demko looks on.



From the sidelines, our Cheerleaders bolster the team with one of their enthusiastic, if less energetic clap cheers.



Almost, but . . . Tom Reis, stretching his six-foot frame, tries desperately to spoil the opponents' rebound.

Of Fighting Teams From . . .

The Vikings began their 1958-59 basketball campaign with prospects of victory on the horizon. Entertaining Pottstown, the Vikes fought back after a disastrous first half; but the Trojan lead proved to be too much to overcome, and Central lost 63-56. Tim Marsden scored 25 points, as the Vikes defeated Parkland for the eleventh consecutive time, with a 74-67 triumph. Unable to keep up with the Viking hustle, the Blue Bombers of Palmerton fell to a 66-58 defeat. Overcoming Whitehall's tremendous height advantage was a bit difficult as the Vikings suffered a bitter 64-63 setback. Central, hosting unbeaten Catasauqua, trimmed the Rough Riders in a close contest 60-57. Fighting hard and scoring fast, the Viking seniors all hit double figures as they defeated Emmaus High 67-51. Welcoming Trenton Catholic, defenders of the New Jersey State Catholic Championship, the Vikings rallied to a tie only to suffer a heartbreaking defeat in overtime 55-54. The Vikings found little trouble in trouncing Bethlehem Catholic as they rolled to a 78-57 victory. Holding the Crusaders to one goal in the second period, the Vikings crushed Notre Dame 54-25. Despite a first-quarter scare by Shenandoah Catholic, the Vikings split the Mighty Atoms to the tune of 76-50. Tom Reis went wild as he tabulated 21 of his 23 points in the first half, his contribution to the 74-61 defeat of Becahi.

Up and in! Joe Sarmir sinks an easy one after he beat Eddie Pfeiffer to the ball.

Fool 'em, Red! Putting defensive man, Schantzenbach, off balance with a simple fake, Spang sets himself free to shoot or pass. Red was instrumental in producing an upset victory over Emmaus High.

Captains of the participating teams in the Newport, Rhode Island, Tournament listen anxiously to Bishop Russell McVinney speaking to Commanding Officer Henry Commelin about the tournament highlights.

East to West

The Vikings baffled Bethlehem in the E.P.L. opener racking up a 64-41 victory. Our reserves proved their worth when they handcuffed Easton 71-65 while our starters were handcapped with fouls. The Vikes trounced Hazleton 75-58 with Pfeiffer and Marsden tallying 21 and 20 ponts, respectively. Pfeiffer's 28 points were high in a nip and tuck battle with Allentown, but the Canaries emerged victorious 65-63. Playing a surprisingly strong Pottsville team, Central edged the Crimsom Tide 70-62. A playoff was necessitated between Central and Allentown to decide the first-half champs of the E.P.L. The Vikes were off and the Canaries again emerged victorious, 48-42.

In the second half, Bethlehem fell easy victim to Central with Pfeiffer contributing 29 points to the 64-56 routing. The Vikes then shackled Easton 61-53 with Marsden registering 29 points. Central lost to Hazleton as the Mountaineers, with a last minute rally, won 63-53. Revenging two earlier losses to Allentown, the Vikings got the jump on the Canaries and coasted to a 53-49 win. Our Vikes closed the E.P.L. with a fine display of team shooting and prowess as they blasted Pottsville, 65-47.

Another honor bestowed on our Viking Team was the invitation to participate in the E.S.C.I.T. at Newport, Rhode Island. On three previous visits to Rhode Island, the Vikes finished second but this year we were less successful. Clashing with the New Jersey State Champions, St. Peter's, the Vikes were defeated in an overtime, 68-64. In the consolation game, De La Salle rallied and beat the Vikes, 60-57. Even with two losses, the Vikes did not come home empty handed. Bob Spang copped the foul shooting contest, making 19 out of 20 tries.

Typical of Tommy—Tom Reis, after bucking his way through the rough St. Peter's opposition, goes up to lay in one of his own patented drive-in shots.

1959 J.V. team, composed of young sophomores, impressed Viking fans as a tall, aggressive team. They finished the season with a 15-6 slate. This is considered a very good record for a young team whose schedule included contests in a strong EPL. Kneeling: John Bloom, manager, John Hercek, Robert Zobb, Francis Worman, Michael Zaia. Standing: Joseph Susko, Raymond Perkowski, Robert Lang, William Wallitsch, Phillip Dreisbach, William Spang.

The Viking J.V.'s began the 1958-59 season with 3 "P's" as their foes. Pottstown took the first game squeaking out a one-point victory 51-50. "P" for Parkland was second on the list and was less fortunate; our Vikes ripped them 42-38. Palmerton came through with a last second rally to whip the Vikes 62-61. Lang, Spang, and Dreisbach hit double figures, rolling Central over Whitehall 54-38. Catasauqua and Emmaus fell easily before the Vikings as they were defeated 60-34, and 51-47. Meeting a tough Trenton team, the baby Vikes won a thrilling game 40-39. Following this victory, we had smooth sailing, sinking Bethlehem Catholic, Notre Dame, and Bethlehem. Zobb, Zaia, and Lang were the top scorers in this winning streak.

Dunk it, Bob! It's hard to block this shot, and Lang has it perfected. Teammate Plessl watches as Bob is about to basket the ball.

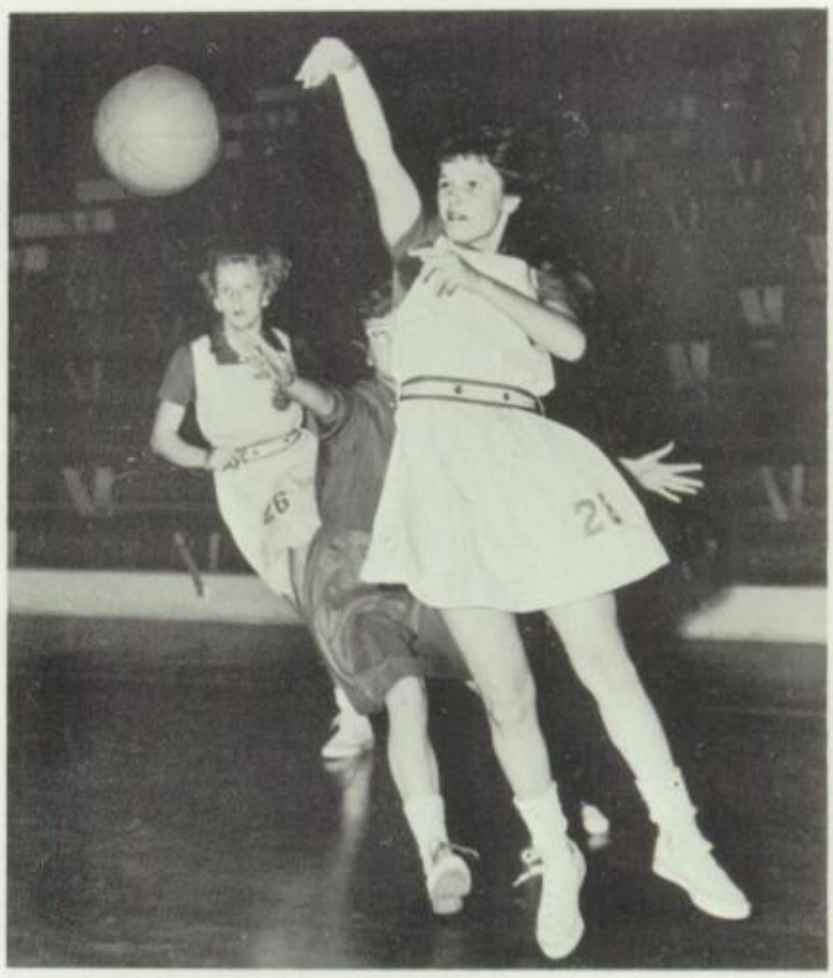
LITTLE VIKES Go And Go

The big payoff . . . After stealing the ball, Mike Zaia goes the distance for an easy layup.

History repeated itself as Easton tripped us 52-51, but the Vikes then burst into a three-game victory spree, trouncing Hazleton 56-32, Allentown 46-44, and Shenandoah 59-22. Playing host to Pottsville, the Vikes suffered a heartbreaking defeat 59-57 with Lang high-point man. Bethlehem was extremely strong, downing our men 62-27. Heading into the home stretch, the Vikes met with success smearing Easton 73-41. The altitude may have affected the Vikings when the Hazleton Mountaineers stopped them 55-46. They ended their season with the perfect climax, three straight victories over Allentown, Pottsville, and Bethlehem Catholic.

Birds cage "baby Vike." Although surrounded by Canaries, Bob Zobb leaps high into the air eluding dangerous defensive hands, and makes good the basket.

Basket or bust! Gerrie Szakmeister closes her eyes and hopes for the best as she aims for an unseen teammate. Rosie Ciliberti and Dritha Pearson look on in anticipation.



Bye-Bye Ball! Mary Dougherty and Carol Kostelnik anxiously watch the basket-bound ball.

Successful Vikettes—Bonnie Smith, Doreen Dougherty, Gerrie Szakmeister, Louise Cadden, Joan Braun, Dritha Pearson, Rosemary Ciliberti, Mrs. Wendell, Nancy Vallone, Rose Eichner, Mary Dougherty, Anne Marie Hussar, Bert Kramer, Kathleen Feichtl, Lorrie Senderak, Carol Kostelnik, Sophie Esaris, Margaret Rago, Barbara Douvanis, Patricia Stangl, Mary Ann Chudy, Mary Ann Kotch, Theresa Brennan, manager, scored winning points to end another season, with another triumph for C.C.H.S.

VICTORY—A Vikette Virtue

Up and in! Carol Kostelnik adds 2 points to the scoreboard as we tangle with Bethlehem High School. Although the Vikettes suffered defeat, they put up a courageous fight and displayed outstanding sportsmanship.

Basketball Bounce . . . Mary Dougherty puts her best foot forward as she attempts a lay-up.

Enthusiasm plus sparkles in the eyes of our girls' basketball team, the Vikettes. Enthusiasm alone never won any competition. It takes hours of practice, days of restrictive training, and lots of patient perseverance. The results are evident: a fighting team and a winning season.

Scoring a victory in seven out of ten league games and one independent one, they finished the season with an impressive record of eight wins and six losses.

Leading her teammates in scoring is sophomore, Carol Kostelnik who heaped up a total of 229 points. Following closely in Carol's tracks is our small but mighty captain, Louise Cadden. "Little Lou" amassed a final record of 169 points. Adding their baskets to the scoreboard are Mary Dougherty, with 92, Joan Braun, with 13, Nancy Vallone, with 11, and Doreen Dougherty with 6.

Success lies not only in sinking baskets but also in blocking the opponent's scoring opportunities. Guarding techniques that discourage and confuse our challengers are perfected by Rosie Ciliberti, Dritha Pearson, Gerrie Szakmeister, Lorrie Senderak, Rose Eichner, and Sophia Esaris.

Two halves make a whole. That's our team. It works as a unit. Personal interests are sacrificed for the team effort.

Warm-up—Seniors: Annoni, Fritsch, Flood, Horvath, Skrapits, Nehilla, Slafkosky, Finkbeiner, Kogelman, and Pfeiffer participate in a red-hot-pepper game. In a session as this, reflexes and judgment are improved and perfected.

Laying it down—Shortstop Pfeiffer lays down a remarkable drag bunt and is off for first base.

Our Vikes lead the way in a DIAMOND SPECTACULAR.

Dead to right—Second sacker, Henry Annoni, after receiving the throw from catcher, Horvath, slips a perfect tag on the runner.

At last the season of peanuts, popcorn, and cracker-jack has begun. Showing prospects of a promising season is our baseball team: Row 1— John Slafkosky, Henry Annoni, Eddie Pfeiffer, Mike Flood, Bob Fritsch, Steve Horvath, Tony Skrapits, Coach Kinek. Row 2—manager Larry Mily, Jim Andorker, Joe Sarmir, Fran Demko, Frank Dox, Larry Horinko, Fran Pammer, Mike Zaia, Jim Buda, Jack Tate, Mike McLaughlin, and manager Jerry Fox.

Coach George Kinek gives several helpful batting hints to captain Henry Annoni, Steve Horvath and Ed Pfeiffer. These three veterans are naturals at their defensive positions and are spark plugs on the offense with their consistent hitting.

Two senior hurlers who have shown great promise are Tony Skrapits and John Slafkosky.

Coach Kinek has several familiar faces on this year's baseball squad. Returning lettermen are catcher, Steve Horvath, shortstop, Ed Pfeiffer, and second baseman, Henry Annoni. First sacker, Joe Sarmir and third baseman, Bob Fritsch round out an impenetrable infield. The outfield chores are in the capable hands of Mike Flood, Fran Demko, and Jim Buda. The pitching staff is centered around seniors John Slafkosky and Tony Skrapits and juniors Jim Andorker and Larry Horinko. Frank Dox is a sophomore. Providing plenty of depth are underclassmen Jack Tate, Bill Williams, Mike Zaia, and Mike McLaughlin.

The 1959 season began with an encouraging 9-1 victory over Reading Central with John Slafkosky pitching a two-hitter and Ed Pfeiffer banging out a home run. The Vikes play the powerful teams competing in the East Penn League.

Graduation is the culmination of twelve long years of working, hoping, and dreaming. To each of us it means an end of carefree days and the beginning of a serious adulthood. Like our Viking ancestors we have met our first challenge with spirit and courage. Now we are ready for more daring conquests. Strengthened and educated in the principles of our Catholic ideals, we feel able to cope with the obstacles which are sure to confront us. If our work brings reward, our hopes find fulfillment, and our dreams become realities, we thank you, Alma Mater.

How? Reading the new handbooks, the Senior Representatives and Officers prepare themselves to answer any question asked them by the students. These students are elected by their classmates. Each homeroom elects one boy and one girl. They are responsible for corridor traffic, ticket campaigns, and for supervising a class if a teacher is detained. They are part of our Student Government Organization, and they help keep it functioning effectively.

Scholarships! Having acquainted themselves with the scholarship program offered by the National Honor Society, these members are preparing to take advantage of it. Members of the National Honor Society are selected by their teachers and activity moderators for their evidence of Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship. Since it is a national organization, the effects of membership are felt not only at Central Catholic, but anywhere in the United States.

Setting up the altar in Rockne Hall for weekly Mass are Sally Ortwein, Dolores Yoo, Georgine Bobby, Geraldine Hartman, Joseph Kogelman, Marian Snyder, and Rosemarie Fritz, members of Our Lady's group, a most important part of Catholic Action. Besides preparing for Mass and removing the altar afterwards, these students, under the guidance of Sr. M. Philippia, M.S.C., also perform an act of charity by singing hymns at the prison on the first Sunday of every month.

Throughout the year, the Key Club of Central Catholic gives its time and effort to assist the school in its various activities. Whether it be distributing booster tags, checking coats at the dances, helping in the cafeteria, or sportscasting our games, the Key Clubbers always bear in mind their purpose of school service. Here the senior members meet to discuss possible activity programs with their president, Tom Reis.

Here is the Key Club at its hilarious best during the Pep Rally that started off our basketball season with a bang. Their unusual performances tend to arouse the school spirit of the student body. They accomplish their aim by enacting characters and situations in the most amusing way possible. The Key Clubbers have already proved themselves talented cheerleaders, rugged football players, and a basketball team capable of challenging the varsity.

Service is their secret; order is their goal. Senior members of the Student Council can be seen anywhere there is work to be done. Tirelessly they give of their time and effort towards the betterment of their Alma Mater, Central Catholic High School. Having been elected by their fellow classmates, they strive to serve everyone, and to carry out the duties entrusted to them to the very best of their ability.

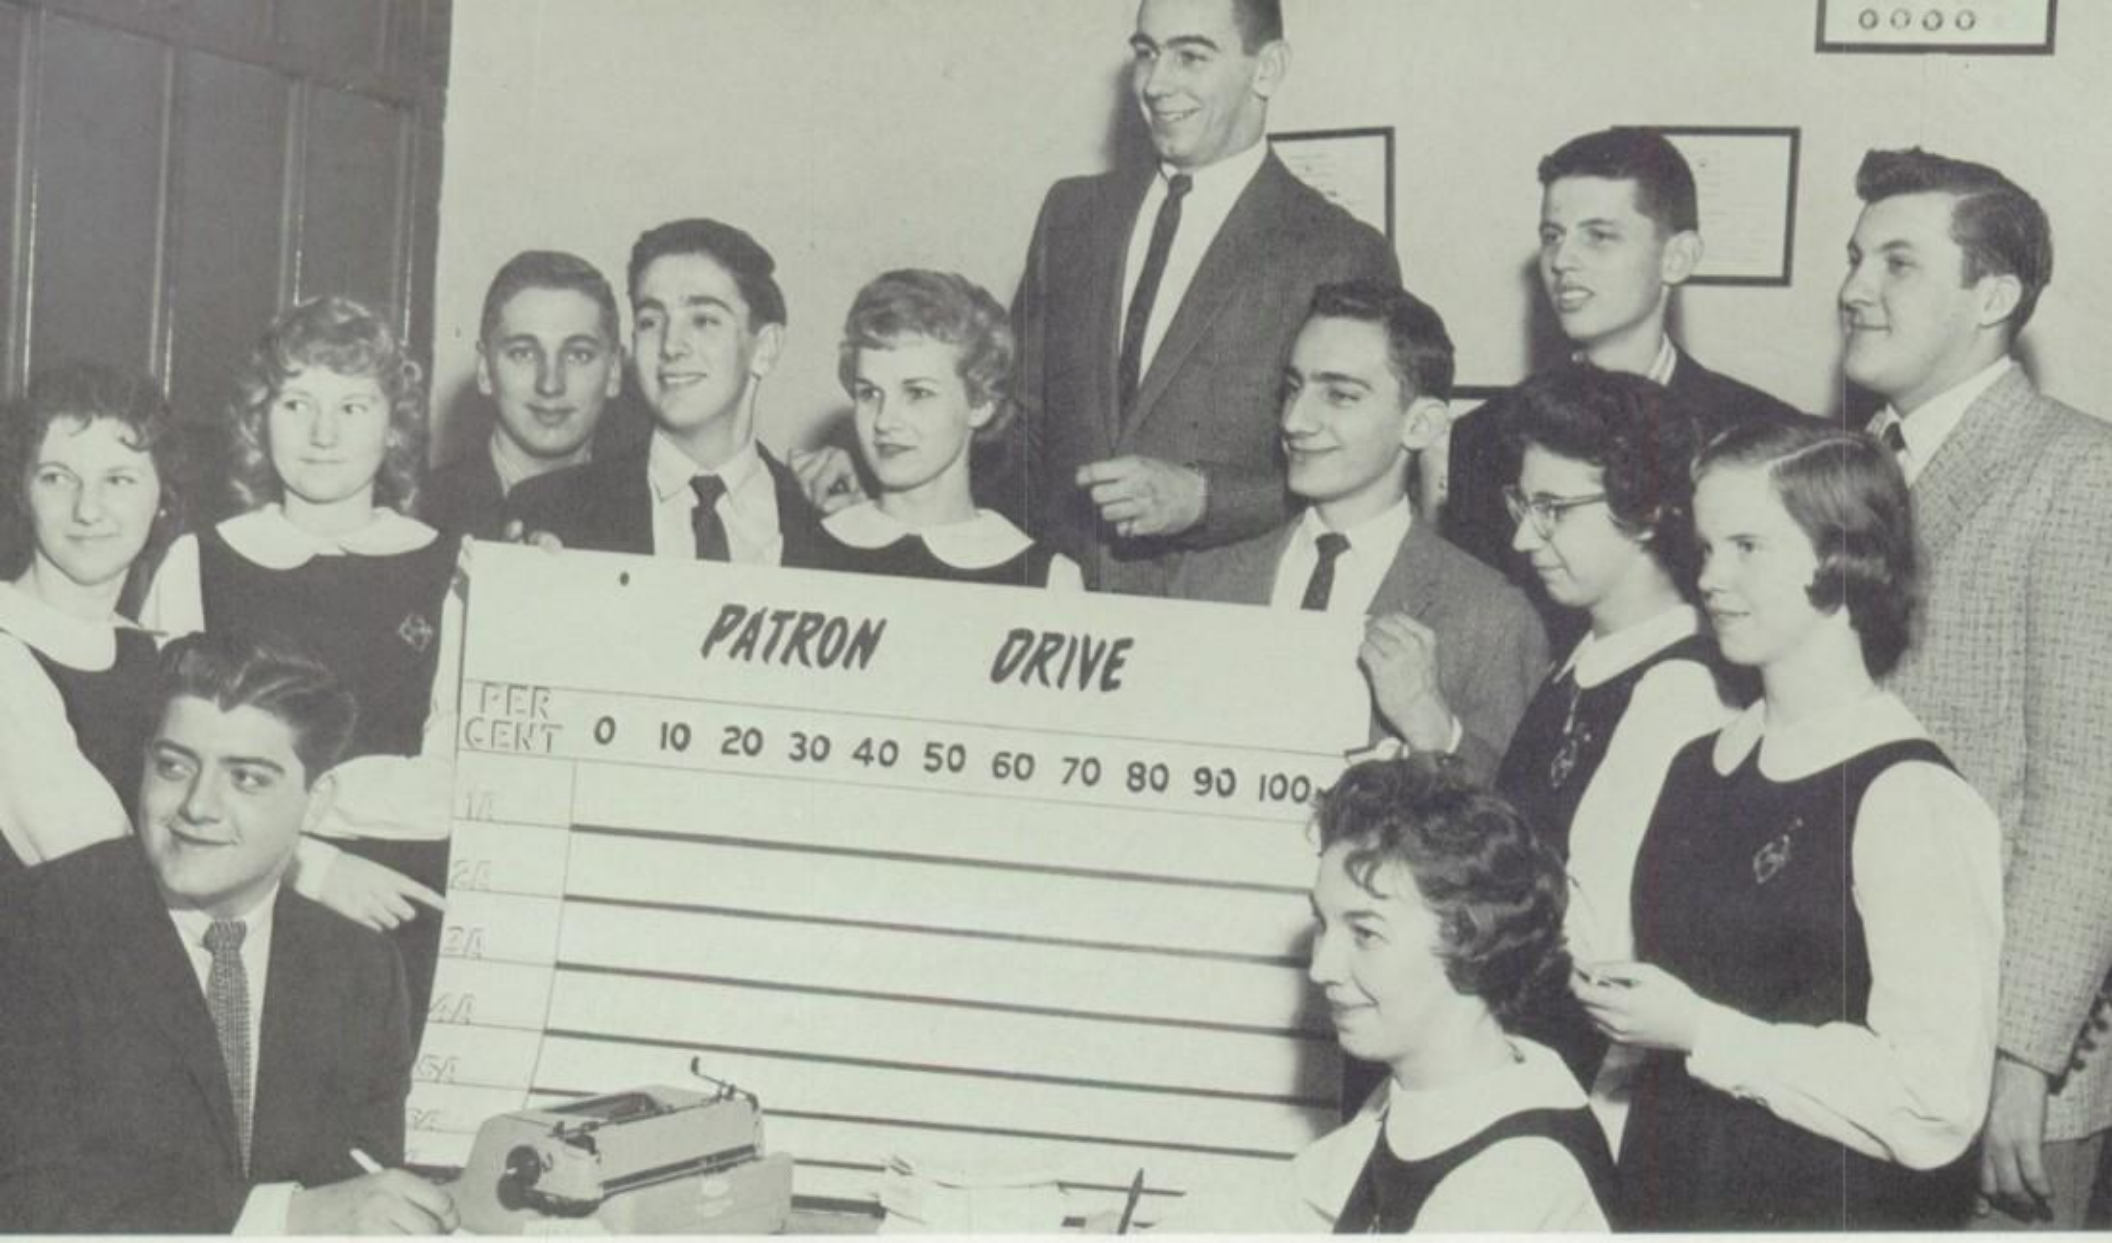
This staff of ambitious senior librarians keeps busy with jobs of every description, binding and mending books, filing cards in the reference section, and checking on books taken out and on those returned. In addition to these many duties, the library staff, with the help of Sister Audry, our Librarian, posts each week, the Legion of Decency list for the benefit of all the students.



"Over the Top!" These patron drive captains are optimists about this year's patron drive. They are determined to make this year the biggest and best ever. There are two captains from each homeroom, making the task easier on everyone. The competition is always keen among the senior homerooms, and it is often not decided who has taken the honor of having the highest percentage until the last dollar is added.

Another victory! Secretary, James Reichert, and Moderator, Sister M. Lucille, of the Athletic Association, check for correct scores on the bulletin board, as Mirella Carrocher, vice-president, and Richard Brown, president, record the proper dates and attendance records. The Athletic Department also serves us by separating and distributing student activity cards, selling bus tickets for away games, runing the athletic office, and keeping an up-to-date scrapbook of all games played.

The finishing touches are added to one of the artistic creations of Rosemarie Busch and Joan Borrelli as Sister Hilda smiles proudly. These decorations for Rockne Hall for the Variety Show, as well as decorations for the Musicale, are provided by Art Club members. Attractive bulletin boards, which brighten the school as well as the Christmas window in Masson, are the handiwork of the Art Club.

Practice makes perfect — These senior Choir members strive for perfection in their preparation for a Solemn Mass. Traveling to hospitals, orphanges, and old folks' homes to spread cheer during the Christmas season is another of the Choir activities. Selections in the Christmas Show and Musicale are offered by Choir members, who willingly give of their talent and after-school time to produce one of the school's outstanding organizations.

Down you go! Herbert Ruprecht, president of the Cupertino Club, takes his turn at the mike during a spelling bee at one of the club's afternoon sessions under the supervision of Sister St. Irminus, moderator. Junior and senior members have learned that when it comes to spelling a word there is no process of climination. The student must have a clear knowledge of our English language, both in vocabulary and phonics.

The men behind the scenes — Much of the success of each Central Catholic production is due to the capability of our stage hands. Working lights and producing sound effects backstage are just a few of their jobs. Another of their duties is to act as ushers at basketball games. Seniors, Carl Siefert, John Simitz, Robert Brown, and Walter Jenkins teach the junior stage hands some of the tricks of the trade.

Don't fall off that ladder! As the night of the Junior Prom approaches, the work of the Prom Committee increases. Beginning many weeks in advance, they have been planning, drawing, painting, and putting up decorations for this special night. Members of the committee are shown here as they add the finishing touches the night before. But their work is not done — they must remove the decorations after the dance, too.

Sneak preview! Trying to adjust themselves to their new roles, Richard Siter, Vernon Goodman, Anthony Skrapits, Sally Ortwein, Rosemary Ciliberti, and Patricia Hausman prepare for the big day, Graduation. Straighten ties, fix collars, find proper size of gowns, and put on tassels (which side do the taasels go?) are only a few of our graduates' problems. Well, all ready to go? Wait! I forgot something! My diploma!

Is it normal? Three pair of eyes turn questioningly toward Mrs. Wagoner for the verdict. Waiting patiently for the answer, are Michael Savitske, Stephen Horvath, and Joseph Hoek. The duties of Mrs. Wagoner, our School Nurse, are many and varied. Giving annual physical examinations and keeping complete, up-to-date records of each student are only some of the many tasks which she performs with skill and ease.

Don't forget the washcloths! As Carol Savarese and Rita Hanzl help Joseph Tacker to pack useful commodities to be shipped overseas, Daniel Harris checks the list of articles to be packed. As members of the American Junior Red Cross, these students learn that "to give is blessed." Thoughout the year, the Red Cross conducts campaigns for aid to the underprivileged and poverty-stricken people of the world.

As with any production, the success of it depends a great deal upon the people behind the scenes, and our Senior Class Play is no exception. The Prop Committee, which includes Mary Ann Schaffer, Faith Henke, Eleanor Sloyer, Frances Lipovsky, Mary Ann Gallo, Mary Ann Stangl, is most important, for theirs is the responsibility of procuring the various properties necessary for a smooth-running performance.

Artists at Work! In the hustle and bustle that prelude performances, the Make-up Committee keeps a steady hand. Agnes Steckel views the artistic ability of Mary Ann Bensinger; Madeline Ionno applies lip make-up to Cornelia Ward; Mary Ann Judd is her own artist; Clifton English gets new eyebrows from Sandra Pammer; Michael Maloy, Joan Viglietta, and Diana Pieroni seem to appreciate the work that Anne Hanlon, Barbara Fuko, and Elizabeth Marx are doing.

Apply today! These senior Business Education students, Kathleen Weber, Diana Pieroni, Rose Marie Moran, Anne Yurasits, and Mary Anne Gallo are getting some helpful hints from Sister Thecla, before going for that all-important job interview. Sister enjoys helping these girls to find employment, and she also takes pride in the success of the many students who have received positions as a result of our Job Placement Service.

Preparing for the future! One of the many services offered to our students by the Guidance Department is the administration of the S.Q.T. tests to juniors and seniors interested in college. The Scholastic Aptitude Tests are used by colleges to help them decide which students to accept, and these tests are taken seriously by our students. Tests of all kinds are conducted by the Guidance Department to direct us in our decisions for the future.

Welcome! Edward Stalter, president of the Alumni Association, officially receive the seniors into the association. The guest speaker, Captain Richard Buck, addresses us students on the place we will take in the world.

"I present to you this award for your outstanding Catholic leadership in the Lehigh Valley." With these words, the president of the Alumni Association, Mr. Edward Stalter, presents the Fides et Veritas Award to Dr. Louis Gabriel.

Former Centralites Greet NEW ALUMNI.

Presentation of a portrait. On behalf of the senior class, the members of Central Committee are presenting to our principal, Father Daday, this beautiful oil painting of Monsignor Fink.

Fides et Veritas . . . members of the alumni celebrate their Silver Jubilee, twenty-five years since they left their Alma Mater. . Among other prominent alumni members are former recipients of the Fides et Veritas award, which is presented each year to a C.C.H.S. graduate for outstanding leadership in Lehigh County.

Courageous Vikings

SET THEIR COURSE TOWARD NEW HORIZONS

"God bless you and see you through the years to come." With this blessing Father Daday greeted us to our high school days. With this prayer he sends us on our way to greater victories. Our diplomas are proof of the knowledge we carry away with us. We have more than knowledge; we have also grown in wisdom. Possessing this precious gift we can more readily discern our place in this challenging world. Whatever lies beyond we shall always remember "the home of the Vikings," where we first learned to face life.

VIKINGS—a name for the proud, strong, and courageous . . . Twenty-two years ago, students of Central Catholic High School adopted this name, because it portrayed the innate characteristics of the Vikings: knowledge, zeal, and love of a challenge.

Even as the ships of our predecessors were guided by the black raven on their flag of gold, our school life is guided by the Holy Spirit, Dove of Wisdom, emblazoned on our school seal.

An ardor for adventure marks the Vikings of both yesterday and today. Only the goal is different. Yesterday's Vikings sought the New World; today's Vikings seek the Promised World, Heaven.

From all sections of the northland these bold men came to meet the demands of the open sea. These early explorers had no other incentive but love of a challenge.

We, as students of Central Catholic, come from many different communities to accept the opportunities of religion, knowledge, and recreation to prepare us to meet the demands of the working world. Our incentive is love of God.

Thus proving that we not only bear, but deserve, the name of Vikings. The Viking Spirit lives on in the students of Central Catholic.
